BLAINE.
THE HANAIS FACIFIC SLANDER.

Species Disposed to The Chicago Tribuns.

TOPERA, Kan., April 25.—The story telegraphed to the Boston Herald from New York, and reproduced in The Tenevie of the 21st inst., to the effect that the United States Court records here implicate the Hon. James G. Blains, of Mains, in transactions in Kansas Facific Railroad bonds, is without foundation in fact. The same docusation was made against Mr. Blains in 1872 by the New York Tribung, and was then disproved and the charge withdrawn by that paper. The Blains retarred to in the letter of Biswart to Parry is John E. Blains, formerly of Kansas and now of Montana.

This Other Blains

in the letter of Stewart to Parry is John E. Blaine, formerly of Kansas and now of Montana. This origin mialing had some stock in the road, but that was in 1861 or 1862, and some time before J. G. Blaine, of Maine, was nominated for Congress. The Hon. Thomas Ewing, Jr., agent and attornay of the Kansas Pacific Hailroad, answered this accusation against Mr. Bisine in a public letter dated Oct. 7, 1872, in which he says that Mr. Bisine outle not have had any contract with the Company without his (Ruing) knowing the face, and he unhositatingly declares that Bisine was not in any manner or at any time, directly or indirectly, couployed by the Company, or in any way interested in its affairs as attorabled, pagent, or otherwise, in any capacity whatever. Col. J. B. Biswart, who is referred to as authority for the Hersid dispatch, Fupilished A Full. Explanation of the whole affair in the New York Times of Oct. 11, 1872, in which it was emphatically denied that James G. Blaine ever had the remotest interest in or connection with the matter. The revival of the story is without excuse, as it was proved to be absolutely untrue years ago, and the Court records here do not warrant the use of James G. Blaine's name in connection with that or any other matter.

To the Restor of The Change Tru burns!

Chicago, April 25.—Allow a reader to state how the Blaine matter strikes him:

First—Harrison says Rollins told him in effect that Blaine got the $64,000. Rollins says emphatically that Blaine did not get that or any other amount. As Harrison claims to know only what Rollins told him, of course Rollins statement is the only one to rely upon, precisely as, in Bristow's case, Suit's statement discredits that of his alleged attorney.

Second—It was not Blaine's business to go on an investigating expedition and find out and disclose what did become of the $64,000. He disproved every charge that he got it, and went no further; remembering, no doubt, the case of Colfax, who was politically ruined (many think unjustly) as the result of an investigation set on by Blaine to clear his own skirts, which latter end, however, it served most effectually, even in the eyes of his enemies. Blaine doubtlessiand to himself, "In 1873 I vindicated myself by an investigation which, much to my surprise, killed Colfax, and that wrongfully. I will now vindicate myself, and let others who occupy a less dignified position than myself prosecute others if they see fit."

Third—Blaine says positively that he has never parted with any of his bonds of the Little Rock & Fort Smith Company to anybody whatever. He would not dare to say that if Hayes, of Boston, or anybody else, could in coming months or years prove him a list. Blaine is not a weak-minded child, and he would not dare to say that he had never sold any of his bonds when he had in fact sold $75,000 of them to Hayes, for others besides Hayes could doubtless prove the transaction if true.

Fourth—Of the three charges against him, one he fully disproves, and the other two he so emphatically denice, under circumstances that would make his denial utter folly if it were not true and the things denied false, that it is impossible not to believe him. Yours, etc.,

THE CONVENTION

will be called to order at noon by Anson W.
Beard, Chairman ef the State Central Committee, and the Rev. Dr. Webb, of the Shawmut Congregational Church, will offer prayer. Mr. Bird will then make a brief address. The Hon. John E. Sandford will preside, and, after his speech, the usual business of the Convention will proceed as rapidly as possible. The most trustworthy advices to-night are that the Dana movement is so strong it cannot be brought to naught; that Hoar is so strong a man he will be sent irrespective of his preferences as to candidates; and that, in the rush for the other two places, no one can say who will come out anead. Either Chadbourne or Learned are pretty sure of an election, as representing the western part of the State.

A STRONG MOVEMENT TO FUT RICHARD E. DANA, JR., ATTRE MEAD OF THE CINCINNATI DELEGATION—THE CONVENTION DIVIDED BETWEEN BRISTOW AND BLAINE.

Correspondence New Fork Tribune.

BOSTON, April 22.—Whatever may be the result of the coming State Convention, nothing can be predicted concerning it with greater certainty than that Richard H. Dans, Jr., will lead the State delegation to Cincinnati. When this suggestion was first made it received favor at the hands of working Republicans, and it is easy to see that if any attempt is made to defeat his election there will be a sharp resistance. His own ward put him forward by placing him at the head of its delegation to the Convention, supported by the bost list of names ever sent to any State Convention. It comprises ex-Mayor O its Nordross one of the ablent and most upright men who ever filled the Mayor's char; Charles Allen, ex-Attorney-General and a leader in both the anti-flutier campaigns (George F. Danny, another fromment dering a large business and an ox-Sanator; George F. Danny, another fromment aerchant and exmember of the City Government; Edward O. Shepard, for two years President of the Common Council and leader of the both from the legiblican ward and City Committee which service and a sanat framph in the re-alection of Mayor Coult last year. Indianal Event Hale and Charles of the Common Connect is a delegate of the common Connect is a delegate is also the three gentlemes who immediately proceeded him in effect of the Boston Journal, and a delegate.

The last of delegates chosen in Boston is a delegate. In Cambridge, Pref. James Bussell Lowelland ex-Gov, Washouru both made speeches in behalf of Bristow at the meeting, and were chosen N. Stockwell, the editor of the Boston Journal, is also a delegate.

In Cambridge, Prof. James Russell Lowell and es-Gov. Washburn both made speeches in behalf of Bristov at the meeting, and were chosen delegates. Prof. Lowell was for Charles Francis Adams and Mr. Bristow next. The other delegates from Cambridge are Estes Hows, Gen. Charles F. Walcott, and es-Mayor Merrill. The entire delegation is for Bristow. Somerville sends a delegation for Blaine, and so does Lynn. In the latter city the Hon. John B. Alley and United States Marshal Roland G. Unher were among the delegates chosen, Cheisea sends a delegation, most of whose members are for Blaine. The Hon. Edward L. Pieroe comes from Milton, and favers sending Mr. Dana to Cincinnati. Lowell and Newbury-port made no choice, but Bristow earried Haverbill. The Rev. John F. Moons is sent from Greenfald. Prof. Levi Stockbridge, who comes from Amherst, will vote for a Blaine delegation. The Worcester delegation stands 21 to 9 in favor of Bristow, and the Springfield 14 to 6 in favor of Bristow, and the Springfield 14 to 6 in favor of Biaine. Fall River sonds a fair delegation, all of them Blaine men. Newton elected a Bristow delegation to-night. Dedham and Natick instructed their delegates for Mr. Dana as delegation, the control of the stock of the second of the state of the s gate at large. Amesbury sends John G. Whitter.

The choice of so many good men has materially changed the character of the Convention. It has shown that no candidate but Blaine or Bristow stands any chance of getting a vote from this State, and that there is a strong probability that Bristow will receive the majority of the 26 from Massachusetts. Before the Boston caucuses it was understood that the State delegation would be headed by ex-Gov. Talbot, ex-Sanator Edward Learned of Pittsfield, Gen. William Cogswell of Salem, and a man not named. The man not named would have been ex-Gov. Bullock, but for his signing last week the call for a conference of Independents at New York. Now these names seems to have been dropped. It is announced that Mr. Talbot is going to Europe, and the Boston Journal says the ticket will be headed by Richard H. Dans, Jr., John M. Forbes, John E. Sanford, and Paul A. Chadbourne.

clinching this assertion in this telling manner:

"Better a Floyd than a Belknap, better a Tweed than a Shepherd." At the conclusion of Mr. Hill's remarks, Mr. M. F. Dickinson, Jr., and Mr. B. F. Nourse gave some interesting personal reminiscences of Mr. Bristow, illustrating his high character and ability. Mr. James Sturgis spoke feelingly in regard to the need of reform in the civil service. There was some discussion in regard to the proposed meeting in Fancul Hall and the best means of forwarding the Bristow cause throughout the country. Mr. William A. Hovey made an earnest and forcible speech upon the requirements of the occasion and the need of enlisting the press in its behalf. Mr. Lowden, Mr. Story, Mr. Walter Allen, Gen. Oeborn, and other gentlemen also spoke, and the meeting, which was remarkably earnest and successful, was then adjourned till Monday next at 8 o'clock at the rooms of the Commonwealth Club, No. 6 Hamilton piace, at which persons who desire to join are invited to be present. Indianapolis, Ind., April 15.—Considerable excitement has prevalled in this city to-day by reason of the changing of the ward boundaries by the Council last night. The city election takes place next Tuesday, and nearly all the ward nominations had been made. Some of the wards have to change their nominations. The Republicans held an indignation meeting in the first game of the Chicagos of 1876 was a creditable one, and promises will for the score at the end of the season.

The Louisvills team were besten to-day by their fielding errors, as well as by their utter intendity to his "paddings" delivery. They have not yet worked together long enough to play as a unit, and yet they have not yet worked together long enough to play as a unit, and yet they have not yet worked together long enough to play as a unit, and yet they have not yet worked together long enough to play as a unit, and yet they have not yet worked together long enough to play as a unit, and yet they have not yet worked together long enough to play as a unit, and yet they have not yet worked together long enough to play as a unit, and yet they have not yet worked to the context of the conte

There was, during the game, considerable open dissatisfaction with Mr. Warren's umpiring, but it seemed no better based than the usual cry in cases where the home club is getting beaten. As nearly as an unprajudiced observer could judge, Mr. Warren made four errors of judgment—two in which the Chicagos took the worst, and two in which they gained. The most important were: Glenn ran in and took a low fly near the ground, making a beautiful catch, which the umoire would not recognize, and again, when White was touched off third and was declared not out. Insanuch as White took no run by the error, it would seem that the criticism was unimportant. Still, the talk was so loud this evening that Welch, of this city, was agreed upon as umpire for Thursday's game. He did very good sork for the games in Chrago last year.

The Courses-Jawran of to-morrow morning looks at the results of yesterday's game philosophically, and says that not much more could have been expected of its new nine. THE BOSTONS DEFEAT THE MUTUALS AT NEW YORK.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

New Your, April 25.—The first championship game between the Bostons and Mutuals was played on the Union Grounds to-day to about 1,000 persons. The day was unfavorable, there being a high wind. The Bostons won the game by superior battlug in the ninth inning, when the score stood 6 to 2 against them, they making five base-hite and scoring five runs. The following is the score:

WRESTLING. THROWS CHRISTOL TWICE IN THREE

The New Chicago Theatre swarmed with a mixed audience. Bankers and merchants, gamblers and roughs, were huddled in together. Every phase of society sent a delegation, and the acces of every nationality reflected the glare of highest and lowest degree, and the faro-dealer in the parquette jostled the bank President. But low and God-forsaken as some of the crowd were, the element of respectability predomi-sailed on Mr. W. B. Curtis to act as referee, and he stepped from his box to the stage. Allen withdrew, and the wreatlers supped forward and shook hands. Heygster is a mountain of solid flesh and brawn: Christol a statue of quicksilver. The former weighs nearly 300 pounds; the latter about 175. It has been thrown, and as he stood there last night, his huge trunk quivering, and his legs, like small towers, planted firmly, it looked as if it would take a herd of buils to tose him.

his huge trunk quivering, and his legs, like small towers, planted firmly, it looked as if it would take a herd of buils to toes him.

There was no time lost and they grappled. It was evident that the German depended upon his weight and immense strength, while Christol relied upon his agility and science. They grasped each other a style of wrestling. Christol tried to get his arms around his adversary's waist. Hard as he struggled, his hands would not touch. Pressing his chest downwards upon Heygster's stomsch, he forced the flesh below the waist, and then gripped his own fingers on the German's back. The stomach hung down as though it had been cut from above. As Christol pressed forward, the flesh swelled out bn each side, and quivered, and heaved, and shook, as the combatants swayed to and fro. Releasing his hold to relieve immelf. Heygster took another hold on Christol's back. He lifted Christol, and, as the latter came to his feet again, both fell on their sides. In a moment both were up sparring for a hold. Christol slipped behind Heygster, and, throwing his arms around him, they were almost buried in the huge stomach in front. The skin tightened and fairly shone. As Christol tied to lift Heygster, the two masses above and below his arms shook and shivered. The Frenchman found it impossible to int Heygster? Sinches off his feet. This was recognized by the crowd, and the house resonned with yells of derison. Heygster turned suddenly and caught Christol from behind, but Christol, bending forward, dropped on his hands and knees and sent the man, whom a moment before he had failed to lift, apinning off his head. But the exertion was such that he could not follow up the advantage. At the next clinch, Heygster sens the Freuchman flying through the sir. But Christol turned and fell on his hands and knees. A dozen catches and trips were tried, but the men were raining perspiration and their bodies were slippery. Twice the German threw the Freuchman, who turned on his face and slipped from under his adversary. Once

Long and demonstrative was the applanse, and Christol appeared, bowing.

Fifteen minutes were allowed for rest, and the men were carefully rubbed down. Then they appeared again for the arcond bound.

They stood side by side, each with a neck and choulder grip. The German bent Christol over, and by a quick trip threw him, falling heavily upon him. The Frenchman was on his back, but, as liegater's are was under him, the shoulders could not touch. Haygeter rolled off to free his arm, and in a second Christol had celed out from underneath and was on top. Both arose, and liegaster toused Christol wer his head. The latter fell on his feet, and, drawing Heygster down with him, stood upon his own head and heels, the tierman's head being under him. They occupied that position for a minute and a haif, when Christol wrenched himself home and aprang to his feet. Four or five times Heygster threw his wiry opponent, but the latter cozed out from under him in some indescribable way, and the advantage changed hands. Finally Heygster got behind Christol, and lifting him high in the air, dashed him down and, falling on him, pressed him back, despite his most desperate struggles, until his shoulders touched. One fall for Heygster. Time, 20 minutes.

The excitement was intense. The crowd howled and stamped. Fifteen minutes more for rest, and the men came up again fresh as they had peen at the end of the hirst. Just before their reappearance a man in the back end of the hall tried to sell some pools, but there were no bids.

hall tried to sell some pools, but there were no bids.

THE TRIED BOUND

was short and sharp. Heygster tried twice to throw Christol over his head and failed. The third effort was successful, but the Frenchman turned in the air and came down on his face. Each then got a neck and wast hold, and the struggle of the evening commenced. Neither stirred, but the muscles stood out in knots. At length Christol gave way suddenly, and falling, twisted and came on his pset, the latter face downward. It was a splendid effort. Three times in succession the German threw Christol, who always came down on his face. Four times they went down together. Once Christol was on his back, both shoulders nearly touching, but by a sudden turn he mounted Heygster and tried in vain to turn that worthy over. The Teuton crocked one of his massive legs inside Christol's knee, and the Frenchman fell like a log. He tried his old slip, and would have succeeded in getting out, but unfortunately for him he pulled the German over on top of him, and there he lay, flat on his back, with 300 pounds of fiesh to hold him down. Second fall for Hegyster, and he was declared the winner.

The crowd cheered, the wrestlers bowed pleasantly, and the fun was over. The stakes were $250 a side and the entrance money, and as the theatre was filled, the winning man will probably realize something like $1,000 or $1,200.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune LONDON, April 25 .- The first great handies of the season was run for to-day at Epsom, the city and suburban bandicap, about 11/2 miles, which derived additional interest from the fact that among the eighty-three subscribers were two American horses, Mr. M. WHISKY.

CHICAGO. Business around the Government Building was tediously dull yesterday. Judge Bangs and a couple of the Deputy Marshals were engaged most of the day in getting the papers ready for the sale of the Blackhawk distillery, which will come off Friday. This property was originally owned by "Buffalo" Miller, and was by him deeded in fee-simple to William Cooper to enable him to run the house. It is generally sup-posed that the property will be bid in for the original proprietor, and the presence in the city yesterday of "Buffalo's" brother, the Mayor of South Bend, Ind., gives color to the supposition.

THE ESCENT INDICTMENTS.

Among the batch of indictments returned by the Grand Jury of the United States District the Grand Jury of the United States District Court Saturday were the following:
Jacob, Benjamin, and George P. Freysinger, of Rock Island. Defrauding the revenue. Bail, $5,000. The indictment contains three counts, charging the defendants with computing to defraud the Government of the tax on 40,000 gailons of proof spirits. The indictment is framed under the provisions of Secs. 3,281, 3,296, and 5,440 of the Revised Statutes.

Augustus De Gray and Alfred Bushnell, running an illicit distillery in Hyde Park. Bail, $3,000. There are six counts, and the defendants are indicted separately.

John S. Chord, a Gauger, unlawful negligence and conspiracy. Conspiring with William Cooper, Simon Powell, and Ballantyne, Lawrence & Co., to remove a large quantity of proof spirits with intent to defraud the Government of the tax on the same. Bail fixed at $5,000.

What the Inquisitorial Chamber Did Yesterday.

The Grand Jury yesterday morning reen its investigations into the alleged frauds in con-nection with the management of Cook County affairs. The examinations had been of a skipand-jump character, and the foreman being cel-ebrated for his consistency, it was very natural that witnesses should be called who would testi-fy in accord with his policy. So far the evi-dence had covered a wide range, one hour delving into the mysteries of fraudulent contracts, and another into the personal character of coutractors and the moral worth of the several members of the County Board. He had seemed to be set in a determination to search out THE SMALL THINGS, being oblivious from ignorance or the want of capacity to touch the larger questions, and it was very natural that the witnesses examined should testify to miscellaneous facts or surhas daily examined, who complain that, while he has appeared in his paper to know a great has daily examined, who complain that, while he has appeared in his paper to know a great deal, his wholesale charges of corruption against everybody and everything have failed of proof.

The witnesses examined were principally in reference to the work on the new Hospital. Several bidders for contracts testified that they had been bidders, and that they onght to have received the award. Others testified that there had been an understanding between Sexton and Cochrane, which explained how it was that Sexton had gotten the contract at a loss to the county of from $9,000 to $15,000. Mr. Willard, one of the old contractors, testified that he had paid Cochrane $200 for plans upon which to work after the contract had been awarded to him: that owing to the blunders and incompetency of the architect certain arches in the original work had to be taken down or had fallen, which was an expense that nobody knew of; and that on the whole the county had been seriously that the hospital work, through the Ring connivance in the County Board. Mr. Dumchy, one of the rival bidders for the late contract at the Hospital, testified in substance that the Bright had been certain parties, and expressed the belief that Sexton had never made any figures in the matter, and that his bid was a fraud, and in proof instanced the fact that he was sub-letting the work to the original bidders, from all of which he drew the conclusion that a margin had been created in the letting of the contract which did not savor of honesty or square dealing on the part of the County Board.

The recuit of the investigation so far, is looked forward to with a smile. The examination of witnesses has been characterized by an inexcusable looseness. Mr. Hesing, it is true, told all he knew, and whatever facts he revealed were voluntary, and inclined to reflect more upon some member of the jury than the public officials. The other witnesses have volunteered nothing, and, as a consequence, the jury than the public officials. The other witnessess have volunteered nothing, and, as a consequence, of which they have compisined on the outside. Who is to be blamed must be found out, but it can only be done when Mr. Storay, who is practically the jury, presents his report. This report, from what can be learned, will amount to nothing more than a moral indictment of those having the management of county affairs, all of which is attributable more to his management of what he has undertaken than to the want of facts in the cases. For instance, he will thorally use adjectives in reference to Periolat's connection with the county officials, and leave Mr. Periolat just as he was, unless the "Times Ring" succeeds in ousting him through the Board, and naming a new agent for the corruption fund in the construction of the new Court-House, which should not be. And the chances are that he will leave the Board with the same character it has so long enjoyed and so richly deserved, and besides, in the possession of the assurance that to steal will remain a virtue, whether it be in selling the bodies of the pauper dead, in defrauding the destitute of their rations, or in execting percentages from every county contractor.

The matter of investigation which has so far excited the most interest with the County Board is the LICHTNING-ROD RUSINESS.

In addition to what has already been published as appearing in testimony before the jury are some damaging facts. In this job 12 is well known that Commissioner McCaffrey had the management and final disposition of 2500 put up in the interest of a certain bid. This was exposed weeks ago, and yesterday it was revived by the testimony of a Mr. Smith before the jury. Now it appears, in adultion to what has been heretofore presented, that, immediately after the original expose of the job had been made, McCaffrey and Wilkinson—the former being supposed to be the recipient of the money and the latter known to be the dispenser of the same—called upon Mr. Smith, and backing him into a vault in the City Building, demanded that he should retract all that had been published at the risk of his life. The contest was furious, if reports be true. McCaffrey-said the thing would blight him, and Wilkinson was of the same opinion. Smith, it is said, however, stood up nobly; and that he refused to retract what he had stated to a Transux reporter is evidenced by the fact that his testimony before the jury, as published yesterday, was substantially the same. It is said that it was demanded of him that he should sign certain papers, when cornered in the vanit, denying all allegations against them; but that he did not accede is abundantly attested, not only by the fact that, after the publication yesterday, McCaffrey was found in Wilsinson's store by a reporter, and his whole manner was characterized by an anxiety to see Wilkinson in advance of any one else.

**MERING VERSUS STOREY.**

In the discussions about jury business yesterday, nothing was more prominent than the tesmony of Mr. Hesing on Saturday, which was condensed in these columns Sunday, and reproduced from the Stadas-Zeitung in full yesterday. Everybody confessed that Mr. Hesing had gotten the better of the jury in the matter, but this report of the

THE COMMERCIAL LOAN BANE.

Aside from all of this county muddle, the jury is daily examining into minor complaints. The latest and most important is against Mr. Meyers. The result is in the hands of Mr. Storey.

WELLAND, Ont., April 25.—A terfible railway secident occurred at the function of the Canada Southern Railway and the Welland Canal, half a mile south of this town, last night at 10 o'clock. The railway swing-bridge was open to allow a tug to pass, and just then a freight-train came along, and, although the proper signals were up, the train gave no signs of stopping or elacken-ing speed. On arriving at a pend just before reaching the canal, the engine plunged into the water, dragging after it eight care loaded with water, dragging after it eight cars loaded with merchandise. Some of the ears passed over the engine, striking against the swing-bridge, pushing it almost 6 feet off the centre. A wrecking-car was promptly on the apot, and a spare engine from Fort Erie, bringing with them W. K. Mult, General Manager, and other railway officials. John Van Noughton, the fireman, was killed. The engineer, named Asron Cady, of Terre Haute, Ind., is supposed to be buried in the debris. No other lives lost. The line with probably not be open for traffic for several days. The canal will not be obstracted. The engineer is supposed to have been asieep. have been asleep.

Arrangements are made whereby there will be no interruption to through passenger and freight business on the Canada Southern Railway. Until repairs are completed at the scene of the accident passengers will be transferred at Cantield via the Grand Trunk Ballroad to and from the East.

DROWNED.
Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.
IOWA CITY, Ia., April 25.—A sad accident oc-River, just below the dam. Prof. Parker, of the neice, a young lady, his daughter, aged 15, and his son, aged 15, and reached an eddying current below the dam, when suddenly the boat was drawn under the water and capaized, upsetting all the parties. Prof. Parker clung to the bost, all the parties. Prof. Parker clung to the bost, seizing his neice, and attempted to get hold of his daughter, but failed. His son was a good swimmer and floated for a short distance, when the current was too strong and took him under. The daughter went under before his eyes. Persons on shore with another boat succeeded in rescuing Prof. Parker sod his neice, but his son and daughter were drowned. When Prof. Parker reached shore he was well nigh insane, and was only prevented from leaping into the fearful current again to rescue his drowned children, by the strength of two men. It is one of the suddest secidents which has happered here for a long time. Prof. Parker fills the chair of Anzient Lauguages, and his son was a member of the Freshmen class. Our citizens are out en masse with torches, dragging the river to find the drowned children.

QUINCE, Ill., April 25.—Work has been commenced by the Toledo, Wabash & Western and Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Companies to repair the portions of their roads washed out by the Sny opposite Hannibal. The Quincy & St. Louis Line runs over the Chicago, Burling-son & Quincy and Chicago & Alton, and Quincy son & Quincy and Chicago & Alton, and Quincy again has direct communication with St. Louis. The track of the St. Louis, Keokuk & Northwestern Road between Hannibal and Keokuk is out of water at last, but it will be several weeks before the road is open. The Q. M. & P. has to transfer on account of washouts. The water is fast receding from the bottoms in this vicinity. The decline in the river to-day was 4½ inches; height above low water mark, 15 feet b inches. Several boat-loads of material were shipped from this city to-day for the repairs on the broken Hannibal Raifroad bridge.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

Des Moines, Ia., April 25.—At noon to-day the ast bound train on the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Road, when turning a curve near the city, ran over and killed Charles Collin-son. He was walking toward the engine and the engineer reversed his engine and applied brakes, but too late. The man was drunk, and but a short time before had been re-moved from the track. THE CHICAGO & NORTHWESTERN, Mr. Albert Keep, President of the Chicago & forthwestern Bailroad, issued the following important circular yesterday :

Mr. H. E. Forter, having resigned the position of General Manager of this Company, feeling that his other duties necessitate his giving them all his attention, Mr. Martin Hughitt has been appointed his successor. Mr. Hughitt will continue to perform the duties of General Superintendent, as heretofore. This change will take effect May 1, 1878.

ALEKET KERT, President.

ALBERT KEEF, President.

It is rumored in railway circles that the main cause for Mr. Forter's resignation was the fact that Mr. Jay Gould had succeeded in getting control of a majority of fine stock of the road, and that at the next annual election an entire change in the management of this road would be made. It has been well known for some time past that Mr. Gould has been after this line to secure a connecting link between the Erie & Chicago, in which he has a large interest, and the Union Pacific, which he owns.

Mr. John W. Garrett, President of the Balti-more & Ohio Railroad, arrived here last evening by the Baltimore & Ohio Bailroad in a special car. He will leave to-day for California, whither be is bound on a pleasure-trip. He is accompanied by a number of prominent gentlemen.

Mr. C. M. Higginson has been appointed Parchasing and Supply Agent for the Chicago, Burlington & Quiney Railroad, with headquarters in this city.

MEXICO.

GALVESTON, Tex., April 25.—The News special from Ringgold Barracks, 25th, says Geo. Tuero, with 3,000 Federal troops, is en route from Monterey for Mier. Querego will hold Monterey. Tuero will doubtless meet Diag forces at Mier or Camargo.

San Francisco, April 25.—A dispatch from San Diego reports the Mexicans gathering again across the frontier in the vicinity of Camoo. Some fear is entertained of another raid. Pickets are posted.

PROTECTION FOR BLACK HILLS PARTIES. Onana, Neb., April 25.—Orders have been is-sued to the Commanding Officer at Fort Laramie to (as far as possible) protect travelers between that point and Conter City, but his force is in-adequate to the tank, after other than occasional scouting parties. Serious trouble is appra-bended from roving small bands of Indians, who will not attack large, well-armed parties. THE COUNCIL Slight Progress Made in Canvaccing the Returns.

Apparent Unwillingness on the Part of Some Aldermen to Finish Up.

They Adjourn to Friday Night to Dispose of Their Unfinished Business.

An adjourned meeting of the Council was held last night, Ald. Dixon in the Chair. There was a bare quorum when the roll was called, and Ald. Foley, after the Canvasaing Committee had begun its labors, insisted that they had no legal right to proceed unless the required number of Aldermen was present.

The Chairman—There was a quorum present when the roll was called.

when the roll was called.

Ald. Foley—I am satisfied there is no quorum

And, Foley—I am satisfied there is no quotum now.

This position of the worthy Aldermen alarmed those who wished so get through with the canvase, and special messengers were dispatched for those who were taking their evening beet across the way, or obstring with their friends in the lobby.

The Chairman ordered the roll to be called again, and twenty-two Aldermen answered to their names.

again, and twenty-two Aldermen answered to their names.

Business was then proceeded with, but there was another sitempt to adjourn during the next five minutes on account of the absence of several members in the ante-room.

The Chairman ruled that no vote was being taken and the proceedings were perfectly in order.

About a quarter past 8, Ald. Hildreth moved that when the Council adjourn it be until Friday evening, when all matters in the hands of Committees should be brought forward and considered. Carried.

After one or two more precincts had been canvassed Ald. Campbell wanted the house called to ascertain how many Aldermen were present.

The Chairman said no business could be entertained at present. ertained at present.

Ald. Campbell would then move to take a recess.

The Chairman—That cannot be done. The returns, according to the Law Department, must be canvassed in open Council.

Aid. Camppell said there were not fifteen members in the house. He moved the call of the house.

The Chairman—That is in order. The Serventiat Arms will bring in the absentees.

after Clerk Forrest had declared seventeen members present.

Ald. Campbell—What is the duty of the Chair when there is no quoram present?

The Chairman—A minority of the Conneil can adjourn from time to time, but it requires a majority to do business.

Ald. Foley moved that the business be suspended until there was a majority in attendance. The Chairman said it was for the Council to decide what it should do in such a case.

Ald. Campbell asked if it would be legal to count the votes in the absence of a quorum.

One or two of the men who had gone to liquor up dropped in at this point.

The Chairman—There are some Aldermen coming in now. What does the Council desire to do?

Ald. Campbell—The Chair should declare the

to do?

Ald, Campbell—The Chair should declare the Council adjourned if there is no quorum.

Ald, Hildreth—If we canvass the vote in the absence of a quorum we will be acting illegally, and I don't think it safe to do so. I move that the canvass be suspended.

and I don't think is safe to do so. I move that the canvass be suspended.

The Chairman—That is equivalent to a motion to adjourn for the want of a quorum. The Chair will put the motion.

Aid, Lengacher—Let us wait for a quorum.

This suggestion was not well received, and the year and nays were demanded on the mo-tion. tion.

Aid. Foley, who had gotten on his overcoat and was moving toward the door, cried out that the Council had already adjourned for want of a the Council had already adjourned for want of a quorum.

The Chairman explained again that the minority could adjourn from time to time, and that the motion to adjourn was in order.

Ald. Campbell—Can you call the roll on the motion without the presence of a quorum?

The Chairman thought this could be done.

Ald. Heath—Does the motion to adjourn to Friday night still hold good, then?

The Chairman—Yes.

The motion was then put and declared lost.

A division was demanded, which resulted, as Ald, Cullerton then moved that the Sergeantst-Arms be instructed to BRING IN THE ABSENTERS.

It was explained that several members had gone out for a few minutes on the understanding that the canvass would proceed uninterruptedly for the next two hours.

Ald. Campbell said quits a number of the flooday night to the affect that the checks Monday night to the effect that they should can see at once, were not present. That was all canvass at once, were not present. That was all humbug.

Ald White—What is all humbag? Canvassing the returns?

Ald. Campbell—No, six; making the speeches.

Ald. Campbell—No, six; making the speeches.

Ald. Campbell a committee of one to bring in those humbugging Aldermen.

Ald. Hildreth, seeing that no business was likely to be transacted, moved that Ald. Campbell deliver the "maledictory."

Ald. Campbell expressed his readiness to undertake this delightful and congenial task, but thought it a little early. Since the Council was doing no business, he would move they take a recess until half-past 11 o'clock. He could not understand the policy or present that induced the minority to sit doing no business. Whatever they might do under present circumstances would be void.

Henry here put in his appearance, very red in the face, and looking as if the search after the descrivers was an arduous but not altogether an unpleasant duty.

Henry here put in his appearance, very red in the face, and looking as if the search after the descriers was an arduous but not altogether an unpleasant duty.

THE SERGHANT'S REPORT.

The Chairman—We will hear what the Sergeant-A-fram has to report.

Henry reported that Pete Mahr was throwing dice across the way for beer, and that the others were nowhere in the vicinity.

The Chairman—The Sergeant-A-frams has been unable to find the absentees.

Aid. Byan—I shall move to adjourn, then.

This motion was put and lost, and some little confusion.

The Chairman, vigorously pounding the deek with his gavel, here deciared that under the charter the Council had power to compel the attendance of absent Aldermen.

Aid. Spalding—I move that the Sergeant-A-frams be empowered to bring in their bodies.

Ald. Campbell—I move that the Police Department be called upon to send out the whole force after them.

Seeing—Frank Adams and City-Attorney Jamieson present when the count commenced, the abserce of one now prevented the Committees proceeding.

LEGAL CPINIONS.

Mr. Adams said in his opinion it did not. He thought the Committee could go right on. If there was a quorum present when they reported, that was aft that was necessary.

The Chairman—Then I shall rule the Committee proceed.

Mr. Jamieson concurred in Mr. Adams' opinion. There having been a quorum present when the proceed of the charter at the devoted heads of the Law Department, but they didn't wince a bit.

Being appealed to further, Mr. Adams said the Council must necessarily set through a committee in the canvass, and the adoption of that Committee's report was equivalent in law to a canvass by the Council.

Aid. Campbell—Then it is not necessary for na to be in season?

Mr. Adams—In my judgment it is bot, but I think it is prudent for the Council to remain.

Aid. Campbell—Then it is not necessary for na to be in season?

Mr. Adams—In my progressore at all.

Mr. Adams—In my progressore at all.

Mr. Adams—In then directed the canvass to be resumed, but after a few min

Aid. Heath—Then allow the Committee to proceed.

The Chairman then directed the canvaes to be resumed, but after a few minutes' work.

Aid. Hidrarh came to the fore again, saying that very grave questions arose on this subject. Insemuch as they had agreed to adjourn mail Friday night, to proceed further might lead to litigation. He considered it unsafe to go on, notwithstanding the opinion of the Law Department. He would move to adjourn.

The motion was put and lost. A division was called for, but the Committee stating that they were nearly through the Ninth Ward, it was a sided to wait until the canvass of that ward had-been completed. In a few minutes the Ninth Ward was declared counted, and the motion to adjourn was again put and carried. The Council therefore stands adjourned unit Priday night.

The base-ball season may now be cons ered as fairly inaugurated, the Chicago Club having played its first game. Louisville had the honor of contributing to the first victor, of the reorganized nine from Chicago, and Cincinnati and St. Louis will be similarly favored as soon as may be. It will be in ing to note the rivalry between the Western cities to see which shall realize the proud satisfaction of being second to Chicago in base-ball.

The Democratic City Council, of Indian apolis, called a sly special meeting Monday afternoon, prepared an ordinance gerryman-dering the wards of the city, and passed the nance Monday night at a regular on. The dispatches state that the Reans of the city held an indignat and that the unwashed, for the sake of ing an unterrified ROLAND for their nts' menacing OLIVER, will hold a

The legality of the recent action of the lown Board of South Chicago in declaring town offices vacant and filling them by a pointment is about to be tested in the urts, ED PHILLIPS, the ousted Assessor, having yesterday applied for an injunction to restrain his successor from entering upon the duties of the office. This move will be vigorously resisted by able lawyers, and, as it is the duty and inclination of the courts to protect the interests of honesty and decency, it may be safely predicted that PHILLIPS will have no easy road to the possession of an office to which he was never elected.

Massachusetts is in a state of fermentati on the subject of Presidential candidates and the State Convention, which meets to day to select delegates to Cincinnati, is expected to be the scene of a spirite between the supporters of TOW and BLAINE. A strong movement in the Bristow interest has been successfully inaugurated, and it is believed that it will be able to secure a majority of the delega-tion. The Boston Bristow Club held a public meeting last evening, dedicating its new hall to the cause of "Baisrow and Honesty." FREEMAN CLARKE, and the event was a not ble one in Massachusetts politics.

The Common Council had a profitless ses sion last night, and adjourned after accom-plishing very little toward completing the canvass of the vote. The difficulty seems to be to preserve a quorum in the cham ber during the canvass, which could be rapidly finished if there were more work and less talk. The respectable members of the Council are anxious that the canvass should proceed with all possible dis-patch, but unless the door is locked or the neighboring saloons closed, there is not much use in trying to keep the bummer element at work. It may become necessary to supply beer and whisky in the ante-room er to insure the attends quorum and the completion of the canvas

They have what they call a New York Pioneer Association in Toronto. Why this body adopted the name it bears is not stated in the announcement that they have con-cluded not to Centennialize this year. The excuse for omitting to celebrate is given though, and it is so Cannuckish that, were the date to the dispatch containing the item omitted, there would be little trouble in guessing at its source. After much discusion these aforetime New Yorkers conclude that their mission was to honor Canadian and not Americans, and thus they declined to affervesce. They are possibly the immediate descendants of the men who left New Fork for Canada about the year '76, and who BARNET CAULFIELD'S Committee got small atisfaction from the examination of ex-Attorney-General AKERMAN in relation to the expenditure of the Secret Service fund for prevention of New York election frauds. They made a great ado over his unwillingness to repeat private conversations between himself and the President, and when they had screwed up their courage to the point of voting to compel him to divulge, it transpired that there was nothing tell. In place of the State secrets they expected to extort, the voluble witness poured into unwilling ears his knowledge of the gigantic frauds perpetrated by the New York Democracy,—precisely the things which the majority of the Committee did not want to hear. "Little JOHNNY DAVEN-PORT" is to be heard again, in the expectation of developing that he made big profits in his position as Supervisor of Elections, when the fact is that his enthusiasm for the work carried him heavily into debt. BARNEY's eavengers are having a tedious time in scour ing for Presidential scandal.

In relation to the Kansas Pacific bond charges, concerning which no allusion was made by Mr. BLAINE in his statement of Monday, a Topeka, Kan., dispatch supplies various facts of interest. It appears that the story is an old one, having been published in 1872 by the New York Tribune, and subsequently disproved and withdrawn. The erson in question is not the Hon. JAMES G. BLAINE, but is JOHN E. BLAINE, formerly of Kansas, and now of Montana. The latter obtained some Kansas Pacific bonds in 1861 or 1862, between one and two previous to the nomination of G. BLAINE for his first Con-JAMES gressional term. Statements in writing were made in 1872 by Thomas Ewino, Jr., and Col. JOHN B. STEWART, both in the employ of the Kansas Pacific Road, distinctly and specifically denying that JAMES G. BLAINE up to that time had any connection with, or interest in, the Company, either as stockholder, agent, employe, or in any capacity whatsoever. Moreover, it appears that the court records do not show the name of JAMES G. BLAINE. on pow-wow to-night in front of the and that the revival of the story, which was set at rest long ago, is utterly gratuitous and

DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSIONAL IMBECIL-

ITY. Five months have passed away since the Democratic House of Representatives organized and entered upon the long-promised work of restoring the Government to a sound system of finance, currency, tariff, taxation, and of general administration. But the five months have gone by and so far there has not been a reformatory act passed; not even a single proposition matured to give assurance ace to an anxious and expectant country. For sixteen years the Der party has been asking the country to give it a majority in Congress that it might bring the country back to a sound prosperity, and for six months the Democratic party has been in the absolute control of the House of Representatives. the fountain of all revenue legislation, an what has it done? The Democratic members of both Houses after protracted caucusing, were unable to agree upon any measure relating to green backs, National Bank notes, expansion or contraction, or specie payments. Though the Democrats are numerically almost two to one, no proposition of any kind relating to either of these subjects has received the vote to take it up for consideration, much less a vote approving it. On all that relates to finance and currency, the House is more Democratic majority confess to an utter in-ability to deal with any branch of the question, or to pass any act of legislation in relation thereto.

For fifteen years the people and the coun try have been subjected to an infamous system of tariff taxation which has been destroy ing the trade, defeating revenue, impover ing the producers, and consuming the sub-stance of the whole people. If there be one thing in the ante-War history of the Democratic party entitling it to honor and credit it was the zeal, and earnestness, and fidelity with which it confined taxation to revenue purposes, and administered the tariff on sound and correct principles. A tariff for revenue only, and no taxation except for revenue, constituted a policy which, while curing prosperity to the country, was acepted gospel in the Democratic party. But the Democratic House, with liberal aid from the Republicans, have not dared to present hat question to a vote. The moment that it was suggested that 50 per cent be taken from the tax on the shirts, coats, pantaloons overcoats, hats, and boots and sho men, and as much be taken from the tax on the clothing of women and children and from the tools, implements, and ma chinery of production, and from all the artiles entering into the general uses of dom tic economy, which reduction of tax might be made with little or no loss of revenue and to substitute a low tax on tea and coffee which, when collected, would be all revenue, the traditional followers of the great Demo cratic fathers, ancient and mod one of the cant expressions, laid down on the new Tariff bill. FERNANDO WOOD, who claims be the modern JEFFERSON, SAM RANDALL, the HAMILTON of this age, BARNUM, who pe sonifies the wisdom of Madison, and Lan-DERS, compared with whom Jackson was insignificant, all entered their protest against any such rational and intelligent pro-iron and Vermont slate-pencils.

The House has undertaken to investigate,

It has been fect in the law, that the Bank Examiner able to detect frauds in the Indian service, among petty clerks, contractors, and others of like character; but such things are common at all times, and always will be so long as we continue the rotten Civil-Service system invented and put in force by the Demo cratic party.

Investigation has perhaps been more of failure than it would have otherwise been had not every step been interrupted by a Democrat praying mercy at the hands of his

The Democratic party in Congress has proved a failnre; has proved to be utterly ncapable of legislating on any subject. It has no policy in favor of which it can conentrate a majority vote of its own members. The entire energies of the leaders seem to be required to keep a majority from doing that which in their sublime ignorance and idiotic frenzy it naturally inclines to do. The re-sult is that the few intelligent men abandon all reformatory legislation in consideration of the majority omitting their harlequin per-

Within a few weeks both parties will have cominated their Presidential tickets, and Congress will have adjourned, leaving everything at odds and ends as they were eight months ago. The Democratic party must go before the country confessing that, after six months' absolute control of the House of Representatives, that party was incompent to agree upon one act of legislation to correct or reform any of the many errors of the Republican party during its rule of sixteen years. With this confession of notoriou unfitness to legislate or govern, of the igand out of Congress, it can hardly make a decent appeal to the people to renew its con-trol in Congress, or to be intrusted with the general control of the Government.

MR. BLAINE'S EXPLANATION. The personal statement made by the Hon.

James G. Blaine in reply to recent charges will be accepted by the public as a satisfac-tory vindication of his personal and official integrity so far as it was affected by the case he considered. The charge, or rather the insinuation circulated by Morron's friends, was that Mr. BLAINE had corruptly accepted a number of bonds of the Fort Smith & Little Rock Railroad, for which he gave no other consideration than his Congressional vote and influence for some bill. The charge had never been very distinctly formulated. There was no pretense on the part of anybody of direct personal knowledge of a transfer of these bonds to Mr. BLAINE as a gratuity. . It was, at best an inference from certain circumstances and statements. It was known that Mr. BLAINE was the possessor of some of these bonds. Then it came out that Mr. HARRISON, of Indianapolis, a Monton man, and a Government Director of the Union Pacific, had discovered on the books of the company a payment of $64,000 to Mon-TON, BLISS & Co. for $75,000 of the Fort Smith & Little Rock bonds, which were comparatively worthless, Mr. HAR-RISON says that he moved an investigation of this transaction by the Board of Directors, but was induced to withdraw his esolution by E. H. ROLLINS, Freasurer of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, who said BLAINE had got the money. Mr. JAMES F. Wilson, of Iowa, another Government Director of Union Pacific, is said, upon hearing the remark, to have repeated it to BLAINE, and also to have subsequently reported BLAINE as saying that he had sold these bonds for a friend. This was the basis for the intimation that Mr. BLAINE had in the first place received Fort Smith & Little Rock bonds as a gratuity for assisting, as Speaker of the House, in the extens land-grant which had lapsed, and in the next place of having unloaded these bonds, through the agency of Col. THOMAS A. SCOTT. upon the Union Pacific Company. In his reply to this insinua chose to ignore the statements attributed to Messrs. Harrison, Wilson, and Rollins, since the letter which he produces from the last named does not refer to the remark he made to Mr. HARRISON. The reason for this is probably that none of these statements ame directly from these gentlemen, and Mr. BLAINE had no personal knowledge that they had made the remarks attributed to them. But he took up the gravamen of the charge, and denied fully and explicitly that he had ever received a dollar in bonds or other securities from the Fort Smith & Little Rock Railroad as a gratuity, or that he had ever old any bonds to Col. Scorr, or to Morrow, Brres & Co., or to the Union Pacific Company This is in contravention of the explanation which Mr. BLAINE was said to have made to Mr. JAMES F. WILSON. Mr. BLAINE SUSTAIN his statement of the case by letters from SIDNEY DILLON, now President of the Union Pacific, E. H. ROLLINS, Treasurer of that Company, Col. Scorr, formerly President of Union Pacific, and Messrs. Morron Buss & Co., brokers, all of whom deny very explicitly that they have had, either for themselves or the Company they represent, any lealings with Mr. BLAINE, or that he received, directly or indirectly, any benefit from the money paid by the Union Pacific to Morrow BLISS & Co. for the Fort Smith & Little Rock bonds. In addition to these confirmatory letters, Mr. BLAINE makes a statement of hi purchase of a certain amount of these bonds at a time when other New England capitalists were investing in the same securities, and of his having lost $20,000 by the subsequent decline in their value. It was probably the possession of some of these bonds that gave color of truth to the insinuations relative to his acquiring them as a gratuity. In this case we are free to say that Mr. BLAINE's tatement impresses us as full, satisfactory, and convincing, in the absence of anythin to the contrary, except the irresponsible rumors which were set affoat by Inlianapolis parties in the interest of Mr. MORTON. . His statement has an appearance of frankness, without any show of injured innocence and devoid of empty bravado, that nust commend it to fair-minded men. If either Mr. HARRISON or Mr. WILSON know anything to the contrary, now is the time for them to speak; if they do not, Mr. BLAINE stands fully acquitted before the people so far as the Little Rock bond story is con-

PARTISAN DIRTY WORK.

The House Committee on Expenditures in the Interior Department is composed of the following nonentities: WILLIAM MUTCHLER of Pennsylvania, whoever he may be, Chair man; one Andrew R. Boone, of Kentucky

WILLIAM B. ANDERSON, of Illinois; a Mr. LAURIN D. WOODWORTH, of Ohio; and JOHN Q. Turrs, Republican, of Iowa. Who these entlemen are, or where they came from, or what they are in the House for, no one can say with any certainty who has not the Con ional manuals in his library for refer ence. It is to be presumed, however, that they were elected by the people of some disricts to Congress, and that they have constituents behind them, and that they are serving their country at the customary pe iem and mileage. This Committee of un knowns has emerged from its conventional becurity at last, evidently desiring to emuate BARNEY CAULFIELD'S Committee on Exenditures in the Department of Justice. The latter Committee having spread its net for the President, and failed to snare him, he former has now made a very remarkable attempt in the same direction. Looking about for some witness who knew something about the President, it t last secured a very remarkable one,witness as mysterious and almost as silent as the Sphinx. He was a witness who was big with a secret which he would not divulge for his life. It was something dreadful ominous, and portentous, however; so the Committee went at him and bored for the secret. They pumped him, threatened him, eajoled him, bullied him, browbeat him, and at last, after badgering him for a full hour, they threatened him with immediate impris ment. Then the mysterious witness was delivered of his harrowing secret. The President of the United States had ruined is betrothed. Here was richness, -an emarrassment of riches even. The Demoeratic unknowns jumped at it like a trout at a fly, and they pressed him to a climax that they might know the full length and breadth of the Beecherian wrong which the Presi dent had inflicted upon this man's domestic happiness; that they might bruit it abroad in all the Demo cratic newspapers how a Republican had worked the ruin of a virtuous maid and petrayed the confidence of an honest man that they might get GRANT into the cave of gloom after riding him on the ragged edge, and stamping him as a lecherous Lothario. Then up spoke this model witness, and said he : " I want you to understand, gentlemen that President GRANT in the body never did me or mine harm. He has only done me that great wrong as a spirit.' The corpus of the President slipped out of the net. country was safe. Having no jurisdiction over the President as a spirit, ghost, or viewless entity, the Committee dropped their wonderful witness as if he were a hot poker. The lunatic took his departure, vacantly smiling at the other five lunation before his leaving President GRANT free to go on with his ethereal ruination of corporeal women. The course of this Committee is in keeping with the whole tenor of the Democratic nvestigations. For malignant partisar and extreme unfairness, there is nothing like it in the political history of this country. To carry out their desperate purposes they have not hesitated to summen a cloud of witesses actuated by malice against the Admin istration for fancied wrongs, -employes discharged for incompetency, drunkenness, or ther cause; perjurers, detectives, adventurers, soiled women, dead-beats, blackmailers, lobby agents, criminals under indictment, prison convicts, and lastly lunatics. The the President is not the only Bedlamite who has been summoned before these Democratic committees. A lunatic was allowed to testify without any restraint against Gen. MEIOS before CLYMER'S Committee. And this whole crowd of unprincipled and irresponsi ble riff-raff has been alloved to testify against the reputations of honorable gentlemen without even cross-examination, and their lying and malicious atterances have been heralded all over the country for partisan purposes. Men whose thole record has been honest, army officers and civilians who have never had a stain upon their names have been at the mercy of a gang of witnesses who would not be believed under ath in a court of justice, and whose testimony would have convicted tlem as liars had an opportunity been afforded of cross-exam ining them. And this is wha is called Democratic reform! This is the Democrati style of purifying the puble service! In the history of this country there is nothing more disgraceful and dishnest than the secret star-chambers of the Denocracy of the present House, where ever unprincipled agabond and dead-beat is summoned to blacken the character of Roublicans, and paid for his dirty work out of the Public Treasury. In 1866 there was a call issed in this city for a public meeting to organie a league or society to promote the poliy embodied in what is known as a "Protectiv Tariff." The resent editor of THE TRIBUE was one of the signers of that call. One of the idiotic papers that prefesses to believ that the owl is the embodiment of wisdon, because it never changes an opinion, greely contrasts the views of THE TRIBUNE will the language of the call for the Protection meting in 1866 and howls about "consistency" It says: In 1866 he declared "that every the this country has tried 'Free Trade' it has been followed by a disastrous financial revulsion; and erry time it has tried Protection it has enjoyed commercial prosperity and rapid growth in national weal, completely repronounces every such declarate to hood. In 18to he insisted that Westin farmers were robbed by the cost of transportath to a distant market, not by the tariff, as free-tilers alleged; in 1876 he insists that the robbery is do; by the tariff, not by the cost of transportation.

If the editor of THE TRIBUE ten years ago held erroneous notions in igard to the tariff or any other policy, that s no reason why he should cling to error win he discovers that the facts are against him Consistency maintained against light is theinfirmity of weak minds. It is the wise an who progresses, and the biggest fool wi stands still and that the local Bank Examiner will now undertake a special investigation of its affairs. then reached its maturity. Its enormity was greatly increased the next year. During the War there was no fair opportunity to test it. But the test did come in time. The Whig tariff of 1842, which was strictly protective had had but a short life. The protective tariff of 1861, which attained its higher point in 1867, had a fair test, and ended in the annihilation of the foreign trade in all protected American manufactures : reduce production and consumption, and finally helped the grand financial collapse and disaster of 1873, which exceeded anything of the kind in this country. To-day, under a tariff more protective than was ever known in this or any other country, there is a greater stagnation in manufactures greater proportion of mills and mine closed, and more operatives out of employ-ment and actually living upon charity, than was ever experienced in the history of the Union. The protective tariff has been practically tested, and the result is a ruin and desolation which will be felt for many years to come. In 1866 the cost of transportation was an intolerable evil; since 1866 the exaggerated costs of transportation have been greatly reduced, and, though they are yet high, they are generally as low as they were in 1860. But the high-tariff oppression continues. The bitter and costly experience of the protective tariff has awakened the whole country to the pernicious policy on which it is founded, and sooner or later the political party which ignores the necessity for its repeal, and refuses to make that repeal a distinct pledge, will be swept from political existence by a people who have submitted so long to be plundered and ruined by corrupt and cowardly politicians who, behind the claim of preserving their consistency, consent to the grossest robbery of the people. The protected cotton manufacturers of New England have thrown consistency to the dogs, and are now practically repudiating "protection" by making cotton goods and exporting and elling them in successful competition with the so-called pauper labor of other countries.

At noon to-day, the Hon. J. RUSSELL JONES, of this city, received the following dispatch:

PARIS, France, April 25.—To J. Russell Jones, Chicago: I would be compelled to decline, absolutely, the nomination for Governor.

E. B. WARBURNE.

This is quite unexpected, even to Mr. JONES and other friends of Mr. WARBURNE in this city. As "You sak me why, at this stage of the canvass, Mr. WARRBURNE declines, after my positive assurance that he would accept the nomination. All I can at present say is, that on my return from Europe last fall, I was written to and asked by many prominent men of the liepublican party from various parts of the State whether Mr. WARRBURNE would accept the nomination of Governor if tendered him. I replied that in a conversation with Mr. Washburws, in Paris, some mouths ago, I asked him what he expected to do on his return home. He then remarked that, 'Should I continue in public life, no position in the gift of the State of Illinobs would gratify me so much as that of Governor.' On the strength of this, Mr. Washburws's friends have urged his name in connection with the Governor. connection with the Governorship. I am sorry he de-clines, for I regard his nomination as a foregone con-clusion, if he should consent to run; and I think no one can doubt that he would have been the strongest nan in the State at the head of our ticket,"

We were very much surprised to find the above in last evening's Journal. It is most ikely that when Mr. WASHBURNE observed that his nomination would be attended by a heated struggle in the Convention, he concluded not to accept it under those circumstances. If the public sentiment had pretty inanimously settled down on him as a Gubernatorial candidate he would probably not have felt at liberty to peremptorily decline; but we suspect he felt distaste to be placed at the head of the ticket if it involved a wrangle or turmoil in the party to obtain the position. There is little doubt that he would have been nominated, but perhaps not until after the second or third ballot. He was beyond all for the place, and his election would have honored the State and given dignity to the office. The contrast between a statesman like WASHBURNE, with a national and interns tional fame, and the mousing demagogue who now occupies and belittles the Gubernator office, is that between strength and feeble ness. It is too painful to contemplate.

THE HOT SPRINGS DECISION. The decision of the United States Supreme Court affirming the decision of the Court of Claims, that the squatter or individual claims to the Hot Springs territory in Arkansas are States, is one of more than ordinary imporance. The Hot Springs village occupies valley running north and south, between two spurs of the Ozark Mountain, its southern end being traversed by Hot Springs Creek an affluent of the Washita Ri springs are contiguous to the banks of this brook, and their healing qualities are wellknown throughout the Union. A flourishing village has grown up about the springs and there is probably an average of 2,00 visitors at the springs to avail themselves of the remarkable remedial properties of the waters. These springs and their medici-Spanish adventurers, and even to the Indians before them, who told the Spa iards stories of "a fountain whose mag waters would heal the sick, rejuvenate the aged, and confer an ever-youthful immorta y." In the time of ADAMS, the Governm laid out a reservation, covering the territor, in which these springs are located. After th earthquake which sunk so much of the coun try below Cairo and made so much land ur tenable, Congress passed a law giving those who had suffered the right to pre-empt quater sections of land, or an area equivalent to what they had lost, within certain limits and upon certain conditions. Some of the par ties who secured the scrip, in looking about hit upon this Hot Springs property, and lo cated their scrip upon the very ground which the Government had set apart as a nations reservation. They squatted upon it, and as there was no immediate they at once commenced building, leasing ground, and drawing rents, and many men have made fortunes out of their leases. Some fifteen or twenty years ago suits were com menced involving the proprietorship of the grounds. The contest has been a long and desperate one. It was interrupted by the War, but has since been renewed, and is now closed by the decision of the Supreme Court, which disposes of all the individual claims and vests the title in the Government. The Government having been successf can now make these springs a great national blessing by converting these grounds into a national park, and building a great national notwithstanding periodical examinations on the brutes in adherence to follies do prove the present inconvenient means of acthe part of the Government, the necessity so because their natures are brute-like. Better police regulations can be had than exist now. Long leases can be operation less than five years; it had not given to tenants, which will induce itead of the wretched pine shanties which ow stand in the village and along the banks of the creek. In fact, now that the title is in the Government, it can make of these springs, which are the most notable curative springs in the country, a great Spa, like the famous German watering places. In this view of the case, the decision of the Supreme Court is in the interest of the whole country, and will have a tendency to make this remarkable region available to a much larger number of people than it is now. As it is a matter of national importance, it should secure early attention at the hands of Congress.

A recent interesting letter in the Boston Jour-nal gives some details of the display in the woman's department of the forthcoming tennial Exhibition which are very signif various works of art and a rare collection of old various works of art and a rare collection of old and new embroideries. In the artistic department, the Princess Charstlan of Schleswig-Holstein, the Princess Louisz, and other Royal ladies, will contribute. The women of France, Austria, and Belgium have sent a multitude of fabrics made by them in the finer industries. The Scandinavian housewives send a large collection of useful articles made by their hands. The woman artists in Italy will be richly represented in paintings and aculature, and the sented in paintings and sculpture, and the Italian women send many handsome samples of their home industries. The Chinese and Japa-nese women have sent "fabrics whose subtle which the fair sisters of the Celestial and the Flowery Kingdoms know." From Switzerland Canada, Spain, and Egypt also have come numerous curious articles, the results of woman's handwork. The women of this country will be principally represented in departments of labor such as photography, carving furniture, engraving, painting china-ware, sewing, embroidering, and weaving, and models of all patents ever secured by women in the United States will also be exhibited. The scope of the woman's exhi-bition will thus be seen to be very comprehensive, but it is not comprehensive enough to cov-er one department of woman's work—that is, the female shrickers for the ballot. All the other busy women of the world will be represented. They alone have nothing to show. ontrast is at once striking and suggestive,

It would be well also to have a third filed in the office of the Secretary of State of IIlinois, so that, taken together, the various local sketches would give a complete history of the State. Such a collection would be not merely of passing local interest and a fitting celebration of the Centennial Fourth of July, but it would be of great value to future historians, and the most trustworthy as well as least costly method of which some experienced person might afterwards edit and condense into a popular size and style. It is to be hoped that all the cities and towns in thnois will comply with the recommendation.

LONDON DOCUMENTS INJURE HIS PROSPECTS.

Special Disputch to the Chicago Pribune.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 25.—The House ittee on Foreign Affairs received through the mail to-day an important package of docu-nents from the files of the Emma Mining Company of London. These were forwarded by McDonald, at the request of the Committee, and in accordance with the promise which he aphed about two weeks ago. After exam-them, the Committee agreed to keep secret until after Gen. Schenck has had an opportunity to see and explain them. The most important stplain them. The most important of these papers is understood to be the original letter of resignation, which Gen. Schenck forwarded to the Directory of the Emma Mining Company, in December, 1871. It may be remembered that James D. Lyon testified before the Committee that Trenor W. Park showed him a letter of resignation, purporting to have been written by Schenck, in which little or nothing in regard to his continued faith in the Company was contained, and Park at the time remarked that he would be more useful to the Company; that subsequently hark showed him a letter which was finally submitted to the Board of Directors, and that the copy which he saw was in Park's sandwriting and signed by Schenck. This story both Schenck and Park

ABSOLUTELY DENIED.

Gen. Schenck said that the preparation of his letter of resignation was his own work, and that Park had nothing whatever to do with it, it was proposible that, after it was prepared, he might have handed it to Park to deliver to the Board, but he was not certain that he had oven lone that. Park demied that he had ever seen but one letter of resignation prepared by Schenck. The original of this document, which is now in the hands of the Foreign All'airs Committee, is of these papers is understood to be the original

Committee, is IN PARK'S HANDWHITING, and signed by Gen. Schenck. This fact goes a long way to corroborate the testimony of Lyon, and places both Park and Schenck in a very unpleasant position. The other documents received to-day are communications between Gen. Schenck and his Secretary in Paris, and Treuor W. Park in London, in regard to the stock in the Emma Mine held by Schenck, and about which there is a conflict between the testimony of Schenck and Park, and statements made to the Committee by letter and telegraph by McDonald.

AKERMAN'S STORY.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune. UNITON, D. C., April 25.—The Comm on Expenditures in the Department of Justice had before them to-day ex-Attorney-General Akerman and no other witness. Most of the session was private and was unimportant, Akerman, at his examination yesterday, declined to betray conversations between himself and the President on the subject of the Society for the Prevention of Fraudulent Voting, and asked on being again called before the Committee, he still declined, unless the Committee should de-side by vote to compel him. A recess of the Dommittee followed. Another session was slared. After all this ceremony the Committee, hopeful to a degree almost theredible, learned with sorrew that Akerman knew nothing, and had Akerman did testify, however, that he knew vary little about the work being done by Davenport in New York; that his first information was by letter from the President by the hands of Gen. Porter, in the summer of 1871, the President being then at Long Branch. He had talked with the President several times, but he could 7 of commember anything particular that the President being then at Long Branch. He had talked with the President had first directed payment of money ander the laws, but he assumed the whole responsibility. He had withdrawn money from the Secret Service Iund and converted it to the payment of Davenport, but most of the payment of Davenport, but most of the passed through Whitley's hands as the head of the Secret Service Division.

Akerman said, in reply to questions, that he had never issued instructions to Davenport, nor not the latter made any report to him as to how he money was spent—

The Democrates acknowledge to-night that hey were completely surprised at the old man's hrewdness and smoothness of tongue. that he could usefully employ a portion of the money given to him by Congress to suppress the election frands in this New York case. Witness was at that time engaged in an investigation in Ku-Klux affairs in the South, and he replied to the President's suggestion that he had already appropriated his money in that direction. He was told in a subsequent communication from the President that the funds could be used with an great advantage in New York City as in the South. After full explanation be

AUTHORIZED THE PAYMENT TO DAVENFORT.
These conversations with the President extended through the fall of 1870 and spring of 1871.
The frands in elections were matters of frequent consultation, and witness recommended the employment of special counsel, and among others who were employed in the New York cases was Caleb Cushing. He could not state any specific case in which the frauds were committed; but he knew they were general. Mr. Cushing was paid for his services out of what was called the Judiciary fund. Witness never thought the President was influenced in his action by any partisan motive. He wanted to prevent frauds, and he did not care what party they affected. He could not recollect that any portion of this money was used to detect frauds in Philadelphia. The latter was a Republican city, and New York was Democratic, but that did not influence the President in his action. The frauds in New York seemed to be systematic,—that was the field of Davenport's operations, and the President was of opinion that if his system could be of advantage there it would be elsewhere. The President never for a moment thought he was acting in a partisan manner.

APPROPRIATIONS.

DEMOCRATIC ECONOMY. Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tetha Randall was successful, so far as the question of precedence went, in putting saide the elec-tion case of Le Moyne and Farwell, and in again bringing forward the Legislative bill. As an argument for proceeding with the bill, Kandall made an assertion which cannot be sustained. and which is an index of the inability of the Appropriations Committee to do snything toward fixing the time of final adjournment. He said that the Legislative bill could be finished in two or three sessions, while the debate of the whole day succeeded in passing over but two or three pages of the voluminous bill. Mr. Ran-dall was unable to hold the House on the bill to-day as as he has done on most every other occasion. Notwithstanding the opposition hith-to in the reductions proposed by Democrate-they have been directed to cutting down salaries of ill-paid clerks, and to crippling the Govern-ment, but to-day Randall reached the appropriations for various localities. THE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE WAS DEPEATED The Democrats proved that they are for economy as a principle, but opposed to its enforce ment in their own districts. A log-rolling combination was formed by the members in whose localities mints are located, and the combined action of these Democratic representatives succeeded in forcing the Committee in nearly every instance to recede from its position, and to adopt the recommendations made in the original estimates to Congress. Every member had read a letter from Dr. Linderman for every change he desired in the bill. Judge Kelley, who represents the district where the Philadelphia mint is located, was an exception to representatives similarly situated. He said that

THE MOST SIGNIFICANT CHANGE in the bill, as reported by the Committee, was the adoption of an amendment by a large majority which proposes to re-establish the assay office at New Orleans. This action raised an extended debate, in the course of which the Appropriations Committee éntirely lost control of the House and was signally defeated. If the action of the House as to affairs of local interest upon this bill is a type of what its action will be on all similar bills, the boasts of the Appropriations Committee as to the wholesale reductions in national expenditures will prove idle.

The House also adopted the amendment to continue the Assay office at Charlotte, N. C., which the Appropriations Committee opposed.

In the debate upon the sporopriations for salaries of Territorial Judges, Mr. Hoar offered an amendment, which was adopted, providing that no Judge of any Territory shall receive any salary in addition to that allowed by law.

THE HOUSE REJOINDER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., A pril 25 .- In the Hou this morning Mr. Lord, Chairman of the Im peachment Managers, presented a rejoinder to the demurrer filed by W. W. Belknap. The pape was read, and is to the effect that the Ho Representatives, in the name of itself and of all the people of the United States, says that the first replication to the plea of Belknap to the articles of impeachment and the matters therein contained, are in matter and form sufficient in law for the House to maintain its articles of impeachment, and that the Senate as a Court of Impeachment has jurisdiction to hear, try, and determine the same, and that as Belknap has not answered such articles of impeachment or in any manner denied the same, toe House of Representatives prays judgment thereon according to law.

As to the first and second subdivisions of the rejoinder to the second replication of the House to the plea of defendant, wherein defendant demands trial according to law, the House, in behalf of itself and of all the people of the United States, does like, and as to the third, fourth, fifth, and sixth subdivisions of the rejoinder the House asserts it ought not be barred from having and maintaining the articles of impeachment against defendant because it denies every argument in such rejoinder which denies or traverses the acts or intents charged against defendant, and it restifirms the truth of the latter, and therefore the House of Representatives prays judgment according to law.

The paper was adopted by the House, and the of Representatives plays judges.

The paper was adopted by the House, and the Clerk was ordered to file it with the Secretary of the Senste.

The managers of the impeachment trial have summoned Marsh and wife; Naii, the Cashier of the Bank of Commerce, New York; E. T. Bartlett, New York, a lawyer, and Gen. Custer. Mrs. Marsh is ill.

THE FINANCIAL OUTLOOK.

Special Dispalch to The Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 25.—The Committee on Ways and Means will proceed on Thursday next to the consideration of the bill introduced by Fernando Wood, which, it is understood, has the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. The Committee has been urged to take immediate action on this bill, that the Government may avail itself of the favorable condition of the money market in Europe for the placing of a money market in Europe for the placing of a first-class Government loan, and the great amount of capital, especially in England, now seeking investment in a security of this kind. result of this delay was that the Funding act of 1870 was not approved until July 14. This was the very day on which Prussia withdrew her representative from the French Court, and before any provisions for the sale of our new bonds could be made the great Franco-Prussian war was actually in progress. This made the sale even of 4½ per cent bonds in Europe impossible, and at no time during the past five years.

UNITLY VERY RECENTLY, has the market rate of United States securities in Europe been such that a bond bearing a less rate of interest than 5 per cent could be sold there at par in gold. No one can predict, of course, what events may occur in Europe within the next year to affect the negotiation of a loan by the United States, and it is the opinion of those who have given most attention to the subject that Congress ought to take immediate steps to anthorize the Secretary of the Treasury to refund a considerable portion of our outstanding of the Government. THE TERRITORIES. TWO PROMINENT MEASURES.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 25.—The House Committee on Territories agreed to-day to re-port favorably on two of the most important neasures that have been submitted to it: The stablishment of a Territorial Government in the Indian country, and an enabling act for the admission into the Union as a State of New Mexico. From the former of these bills have been stricken by a vote of the Committee all parts relating to railroads which now extend into or across the Indian Territory, and also provisions touching the distribution of lands among Indians now residing there. The ntention of the Committee is to leave the Indian and question just where it is now, and to prevent the present Indian title from being extinguished, or railroad companies from obtain ing isnd which has been granted to them. As the ultimate effect of the bill, which provides for the establishment of United States Courts in the Indian Territory, and for the acquisition of United States citizenship by Indians themselves,

United States citizenship by Indians themselves, will be to

of the several Indian nations, and as the covenant of the United States with these nations is to continue only so long as the tribal organization continues, and the land now held by the Indians reverts to the United States whenever that organization is broken up, it is difficult to see how the most important objection to this bill can have been removed.

A motion to reconsider the Committee's action on the New Mexico bill was entered to-day, so that there may be some delay in reporting it.

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEEMEN.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune,
Washington, D. C., April 25.—The Stone committee on Post-Office Expenditures to-day further examined Davis, of the Post-Office Department, with respect to the Safely method of weighing mails. Davis produced additional records from the files of the Post-Office Department to show that the weighing of the mails on all the great roads running West from Chicago was made simultaneously in the month of November last, and not at different times, as has been alleged by the Opposition. An attempt was made in the investigation to obtain an admission that on some of the side roads during the weighing month large amounts of free matter was sent over the roads several times in order to increase the weight. There was no actual proof of this charge. Stone goes to Pitteburg to-night to obtain additional witnesses, and may possibly extend his visit to

OFFERING WITNESSES INDUCEMENTS.

Another glaring example of the infamous manner in which testimony is worked up for and by members of House Investigating Committees came to light last night. For some days there has been a story whispered around among detectives that Secretary Bristow had been caught in retaining money collected by him as District-Attorney at Louisville. No one gave the least heed to the story further than to wonder which set of detectives now at work here had set it up. Yesterday a wilness who had been summoned and examined privately by Judge Bright, of Tennessee, who, as a Committeman, has been very forward in his efforts to investigate Secretary Bristow, made an affidavit in regard to

THE MEANS USED to induce him to testify against Bristow by Bright and a Wachington blatherskite named Thornton Smith, who has been exceedingly busy about the investigations. Marks, who was a partner in a Louisville brewery formerly seized by Bristow, and made to pay neavily, makes affidavit setting forth that Smith waited on him upon his arrival here, and said be (Marks) had stated not long since that $1,500 had been paid Bristow for a compromise, but that it had never reached the Treasury. Smith next introduced Marks to Judge Bright, and the latter said

THEY HAD "GOT" BRISTOW in this matter, and continued, "Here's the thing about it. Bristow, Blaine, and Morton are candidates for the Presidency, and if we can get this clew on Bristow we bar him out at least." Next morning Marks went to see Judge Bright, and found Thornton Smith there. Bright asked many questions about Bristow, and said he would no doubt have the witness summoned. The affidavit then closes as follows:

Smith, in the presence of Bright, said: "Now, Mr, Marks, if the Democrats come into power, no doubt you can say you assisted some. and no doubt you.

"No doubt; if he is worthy of such an office, he might take his chances as well as anybody else."

THE COST.

A gentieman, who has made a careful computation of the present Democratic method of investigation, estimates that the total expense of all the investigating committees will not fall much short of $500,000.

all the investigating committees will not fall much short of $500,000.

THE GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE.

The House Committee on Printing have completed the investigation of the Government printing office, and will proceed at once with the preparation of their report. Clapp, the Congressional printer, has asked for the privilege of appearing before the Committee by counsel. The Committee, at its meeting to-day, authorized a letter to be written to Clapp, informing him that it bad closed the testimouy in the case; that all the witnesses whose names he had suggested had been called and examined, but that she Committee had no objection to his appear. the Committee had no objection to his appearance by counsel or otherwise, and would examine any further witnesses whose testimony he might desire to have taken. It is reported this evening that Clapp has engaged the services of ex-Senator Matt H. Carpenter for his defense before the Committee.

experience in diplomacy, and long in high public position, says it is one of the strongest letters he has ever seen from one Government to another. It recites the precedents, principles, and practices of the two Governments for the past thirty-five years, and in the opinion of Faulkner it is conclusive, and beyond answer. The letter was long since trought to the attention of the Queen's Government, and,
although time sufficient has elapsed, no response by mail or cable has been received. Mr. Fish

Special Depatch to The Chicago Tribune.

WASHING FOR, D. C., April 25.—The Cabinet meeting of Friday last came to a decision not to allow the records of the Executive Departments to go out of responsible hands, and Secretary Bristow, in responding to a request of the Committee on Expenditures in the Department of Justice, refused to give the vouchers showing the expenditures of the United States Marshal's office at New York. Caulfield has replied. His Committee is duly empowered by Congress to send for persons and papers, and that if his request for the documents in question is not acceded to he will be compelled to resort to the subposns duces tecum. Should Secretary Brisow continue to resist, he may precipitate ontroversy about as puzzling in its presents tion of the question of relative authority as the dispute between the House and the courts over the witness Kilbourn. Parneil Munson, in the investigation of the Marshalship, has testified as to the amounts of money he received. The object of the investigation is to show that where Deputy Marshals have only received $1.000, vouchers and receipts have only received $81.000, vouchers and receipts have in some cases been turned into the Government covering an amount as high as $10.000. It is alleged that a subpons and like official papers were sent by mail to distant towns and places, and the feee for mileage and per diem allowances charged up as if the papers were served personally. From his testimony, it appears that he had an interest in the Hammond contract, though his name oid not appear. Col. John L. Merriam was his partner. The witness did nothing but furnish money. The witness received notes or checks from Col. Merriam, who made the checks payable to him. He made no attempt to conceal the receipt of money, nor did he think he acted dishonorably. His recollection was that he did not receive over $3,000 from all his surveying contracts. The witness lection was that he did not receive over $3,000 from all his surveying contracts. The witness was asked whether he told Dr. Reed, in April, 1875, that the President had evidence of his interests in such contracts, and replied that he did not recollect. Being closely questioned, he said that according to his recollection the evidence was shown to him by Gen. Baboock at the White House. He never had a talk with the President about the matter.

The Senate took a very decided stand to-day with respect to the ill-advised reductions pro osed by the House in the Appropriation bills After some discussion, in which few of the Senate Democrate were found who would support the House, it was decided that the Senate should not recede from its amendments to the Diplomatic bill, and that a Conference Committee should be appointed. This was done. By this action the Senate has shown a mark of courtesy to the House which the latter body has recently refused the Senate, in declining to ask for a conference upon this same bill.

TRACTIONAL CURRENCY AND SILVER COIN.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 25.—Complaints have reached here that at some of the Sub-Treasuries fractional currency is continued to be paid out for legal-tonder notes, and that at others it is refused. Treasurer New said today that there was nothing in the law which prohibited him from paying out fractional currency not received in exchange for silver, the same as beretofore, and that it would be done in small amounts at all Sub-Treasuries. There is about $700,000 in fractional currency on hand here, which can be paid out. Mr. New said, however, that he would not allow it to be paid out in large sums, but in a limited quantity.

A sub-committee, headed by Representative Willia, of the House Committee on Naval Affairs, will on Monday next begin the investigation of the management of the Brooklyn Navy Yard, and generally of the expenditures and contracts in and about New York City for naval purposes.

NEW YORK, April 25.—A Washington spe New York, April 25.—A Washington special says the House Appropriation Committee adopted the Post Office bill this morning, which provides that the free delivery system shall not be introduced in cities of less than 40,000 inhabitants. It adopts the new system of compensation for mail service by space instead of weight, and virtually cuts off the present fast mail trains. The maximum of speed is fixed at 30 miles per hour.

THE RECORD.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 25.—After the more ing hour, the Senate, by a vote of yeas 4 and nays 41, refused to recede from its amendments to the Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation oill, and ask for a committee of conference. The Chair appointed as such Committee Mesers. Sar gent, Frelinghuysen, and Withers.

The Senate insisted on its amendments to the Deficiency Appropriation bill, and agreed to the conference asked for by the House. Mesars, Morrill (Me.), Allison, and Davis were appo (Me.), Allison, and Davis were appointed members of the Conference Committee on the part of the Senate. The Chair announced McMillan as a member of the special committee to inquire into the circumstances attending the late election in Mississippi in piace of Oglesby, excused.

Mr. Thurman presented a memorial of the Cincumati Board of Trade, remonstrating against any reduction of salaries of officers in the Patent-Office, the diversion of any revenues thereof to other purposes, and praying that the revenues of said office be expended in its own proper tusiness. Beferred.

The Committee on Finance reported back, with amendments, the concurrent resolution to secure unformity in god coin, moneys, and accounts between amendments, the concurrent resolution to secure uniformity in good coin, moneys, and accounts between the United States and the United Kingdom of Great Brit. In and Ireland, and recommended its adoption. The Senate their resumed consideration of the bill to amend the law relating to the legal tender of silver coin, and Air Jones (Nev.) resumed his argument. At the conclusion of Mr. Jones speech, Mr. Bogy moved that the bill and pending amendments be printed. So ordered.

Penning discussion, the Senate went into executive session, and soon adjourned.

CONFIRMED.

The Senate confirmed Sumner Howard United States Attorney for Utah.

Mr. Harris, Chairman of the Committee on Elec-tions, called up the Illinois contested-election case of Le Moyne against Farwell.

Mr. Randall raised the question of consideration, so as to give precedence to the Legislative Appropriation bill, and the House decided, by a vote of 70 years to 117 nava, not to proceed with the election case. bill, and the House decided, by a vote of 70 years to 117 mays, not to proceed with the election case.

The District of Columbia Tax bill, as amended by Mr. Neal's substitute, providing for a tax of 1½ per cent on all property, real and personal, was passed.

Mr. Lawrence, from the Judiciary Committee, submitted a report in relation to the Pacific Railroads, proposing a bill to require them to create a sinking fund, and to pay at maturity the principal and interest of the subsidy bonds issued to them by the Government. The report embraces a discussion of the legal right of Congress to require this sinking fund, its necessity and justice. Ordered printed and recommitted.

right of Congress to require this sinking fund, its mecassity and justice. Ordered printed and recommitted.

THE GENERAL APPROPRIATION BILL.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. Cox in the chair, on the Legislative and Executive Appropriation bill, resuming it on page 37, where provision is made for the mints.

Mr. Piper moved to amend the item for the San Francisco Mint by increasing the appropriation for wages from $225,000 to $270,000.

Mr. Randall moved to amend the amendment by providing that the rate of wages paid at the San Francisco Mint shall not exceed those paid at the Philadelphis Mint by more than 25 per cent.

Mr. Piper's amendment was rejected, and Mr. Randall's agreed to.

An it in of $i4,000 was inserted to carry on an Assay office in the mint building at New Orleans, and one of $5,000 for an Assay office at Hoise City.

The question of compensation of Territorial Judges, fixed in the bill at $2,500, gives rise to discussion, most of the speeches being against the utter inadequacy of that compensation.

Mr. Cannon, of Utah, illustrated it by a statement that the Territorial Legislature of Utah made an appropriation to increase the compensation of United States Judges, who acted there in a dual capacity.

Mr. Hoar expressed his astonishment at Mr. Cannon's statement, and intimated that any Federal Judge who received compensation from any outside source deserved impecichment.

Mr. Hoar offered an amendment forbidding Territorial Judges to accept any compensation except that provided by Congress.

Mr. Steele (Wyoming) opposed the amendment as one which would drive every competent Judge in the territories to resign.

The amendment was agreed to.

After disposing of six pages of the bill, progressing as far as provisions for the War Department, the House adjourned.

London, Addi 26.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says he has received the following information from sources worthy of respect: Russia's distrust of armed intervention by Austria having been removed by the influence of Germany and other Powers, a plan is on the point of being adopted according to which Austria is to occupy Herzegovina, Bukowina, and Bosnia, and impose a complete separation of Turkey from the Christian provinces. The foregoing, together with Montenegro and Servia, are to become independent States interposed between Turkey and the remainder of Europe. The correspondent adds that he has doubts about the above intelligence, although the source is good.

HEAVINESS IN THE BONANZA STOCKS. HEAVINESS IN THE BONANZA STOCKS.

The San Francisco Chronicle of the libith inst. says: At the informal season yesterday morning there was a large number of dealers in attendance; but the market, as a whole, was heavy. The "spuri" in Alpha, Imperial, and Exchequer were the only stocks showing any life whatever. Had it not been for these stocks being well sustained, through brokers' purchases, there is not much doubt that the general market would have shown a serious decline. The bonanza stocks scarcely had a quotation. There was some disposition to speculate in Mexican, but the heaviness of California and Consolidated Virginia put a damper upon the traffic of Virginia stocks. The new shares of Imperial soid for the first time, bringing from $6.75 to $27.25$, closing at the latter figure. The evident scarcity of Alpha stock sent the price up to $70, closing, however, before the regular Board at $77.50. Exchequer touched $77.25$. The inactivity in all other stocks was noticeable and gave operators the timpression that the 6old Hill group was the saltpeter which saved the market from turning out bad.

The President of the National Bank of the State of few York has received the official permission of comptroiser Knox for the bank to resume business, application will accordingly be made to the Clearing-douse for readmission, and business will be resumed probably by the 1st of May.

The act requiring a sinking fund was passed in 1862, and was to be put in operation that year, but meeting was done about it until May, 1869. The purchases for this account have been as follows:

set the amount required by the Sinking-Fund act. In 1874-75 the requirement was $31,096,545. Of this only $1,096,500 could be bought at par, and the Secretary made a call for $30,000,000 to be paid off in gold. Only $24,073,900 of these had been presented up to June 30, which is the reason for the lesser amount placed to the sinking fund.

BUTTER—Trade was again reported dum, was values weak and variable. There is not as yet any considerable accumulation of butter at this point, but as the receipts are now steadily increasing, without any corresponding improvement in the demand, there is a lack of confidence in the future of prices, and hold-

GENERAL MARKETS.

ALCOHOL—Was steady at $2.14.

BROOM—CORN—The retail demand was up to the recent average, and most of the orders were placed at the quoted figures. The stock is decreasing, and the best grades are firmly held, but common corn is still plentiful, and any material increase in the receipts of such might lead to weakness. We quote: Choice hurl, 8690; No. 2 hurl, 7680; choice metally of the property of

That settled roads and pleasant weather were all that were needed to infuse life into the dry-goods trade is evidenced by the course of the market during the week anding with yesterday. From the opening to the end of the week, under the influence of sunny days, there was a steady and marked improvement in the demand, and the closing days were characterized by genuine activity in nearly all departments. Interior merchants were present in goodly numbers, and, as prices are now at a point where any further shrinkage is not to be apprehended, the extreme caution hitherto characterizing their movements is no longer apparent. The demand is, however, strictly legitimate, nothing resembling a speculative tendency having as yet been developed. In values few changes have taken place. Prints remain in an unsettled state, and it will be noticed that the quotations of Cocheco, American, Sprague, and some other brands have been cut down Mc, but the general market maintains a steady and firm tone. The following concerning the exputs movement is from the New York Journal of Counserce of April 22: "Whatever improvement there may be in domestic trade is, however, fairly surpassed by the increased volume of our exports which are being sent, not as at first to European middlemen, but direct. This week shows the largest amount in value and number of packages thus far sent forward this year, and the total to date has very nearly caught up with 1859. There are only two other years, 1860 and 1861, when the exports were larger."

Those of the Reformers in the same instances showed discrepancies with each other and with known facts so as to require explanation, though some deficits have occurred since the adjournment of the Lagislature. Preliminary steps have been taken for witnesses. Mr. Bird, Taylor's Secretary, and Capt. Knight, has last Superintendent, are here. The probabilities are that our Democracy will soon find an interest in home investigation, so that they will not need to give Washington all their thoughts. Gov. Meeting of the Synod of Chicago Lengthy Report on the Question of Synod-

Trying to Settle the Boundaries of the Synod-Indorsing the "Appeal."

An adjourned session of the Chicago Synod of the Reformed Episcopal Church was held yesterday morning in St. Paul's, near the corner of Ann and West Washington streets. The Rt. Rev. Bishop Cheney presided.

Previous to the commencement of the business of the session, religious services were had, which were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Fallows and the Rev. J. D. Davis, of Chillicothe, Ill., and which lasted about three-quarters of an

of the Church for years to come. We are in favor of only such an extension of the Episcopal force as the necessities of the work impersitively demand; and for ack of which that work is even now tramendously suffering. Who can doubt, in view of the facts, that if we had the means of putting at once into the field two, if not three, trusty and well-tried men, invested with the prestige of the Episcopal office, whose work should be constantly and endusively that of laying foundations, their efforts would, by the biassing of God, result within one year in the setablishment of strong congregations in many of our large cities, besides an indefinite number of places of smaller note 7 And the necessary complement once provided to set the machinery in motion, and keep if running, there would be no great need of their speedy sugmentation. Guarded as it is in the Reformed Episcopats. So long as the Church has an abundance of work for them to do, and they do it, so long, it is to be expected, will our Bishops prove to be right men in the right place; and when there shall be no longer need of their services as Bishops, the General Council, which holds the reins, and in which Bishops are simply honored Presbyters, having no more voice than their other ministerial brethren, sam quietly retise them.

The following resolution accompanied the

To BUSINESS.

The business of the session was then proceeded with. In the absence of Secretary Moorhouse, Mr. W. W. Wilson, of the Peoria Transcript, was chosen temporary Secretary. The following delegates were present:

Ministers—Chicago—The Rt.-Rev. Bishop Cheney, the Rev. Dr. Fallows, the Rev. Dr. Cooper, the Rev. Ernst Guntrum, the Rev. M. T. McCormick, the Rev. R. H. Bosworth, the Rev. Albert Walkley; Peoris—The Rev. J. D. Wilson; Chillicothe—The Rev. J. P. Davis.

Laymen—Christ Church—Gurdon S. Hubbard, William E. Wheeler, Henry A. Porter, William Edmonds, Gen. C. P. Buckingham; St. Paul's—Col. J. W. Bennett, F. A. Bryan, D. J. Colbourn, E. P. Trinity Church, Englewood, was recognized, and its delegates admitted to membership in the Synod.

The Rev. Mr. Wilson wanted to know if any

THE UNSKARCHAFLE RICHES OF CHRIST.

Such, we have faith to believe, can be found. All that is lacking is the means to equip and sustain them in their appointed fields.

And appropos as to means. We are a poor church, and, it is to be expected, may long continue so. Such was and is the church of the Albugenses and Waidenses. It is well to understand that those who enter the ranks of the Church must do so, not for the sake of the honors and emoluments as he as to give, but for the love of her distinctive principles, and of the work to which God has called her. Her Bushops, equally with her Presbyters and laity, should be men who know what set-donial is, not alone in theory, but in the stern reality of its experience in the daily life. Bishops of exaited talent should be willing to accept moderate assiries; and the laity should be willing to do their utmost to provide them, according to the measure of their church's need. Just here we think we can perceive the advantage of a Synodical Episcopata. While the missionary staff must of necessity be a charge upon the Church at large, the Synodical Episcopata will, in the very nature of the case, be a parochial minister, with limited episcopal responsibilities, and wholly dependent upon his parochial support. Manifestly, the more there are of such Bishops, located in the leading centres, and at his head of strong churches, the more free will be the Missionary Bishops to extend their operations into the "regions beyond." The learner centres, and at his head of strong churches, the more free will be the Missionary Bishops to extend their operations into the "regions beyond." The session then adjourned till 3 o'clock in the afternoon, the Synod and members of the papers having been invited in the meantime to partake of a lunch provided by the ladies of the church, which was heartily enjoyed. REPORT ON THE MEMORIAL.

The Rev. Mr. Wilson, from the Committee on Memorial, to whom had been referred Dr. Cooper's paper, reported as follows:

Your Committee would respectfully report that they have had under consideration the paper read before the Synodical Council by the Rev. W. H. Cooper, D. D., relating to Synodical and Missionary Bishops, and would recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That the said paper be printed with the processings of the Synod in the Appeal.

Resolved, That the Synodical Council submit to the next General Council its action in relation to the election of a Synodical Bishop, and respectfully ask of that body the confirmation of the same.

Resolved, That a Committee of three Presbyters and two laymen be appointed to present the subject to the General Council.

Resolved, That is the sense of this Synod that a Synodical Bishop should not be removed by the General Council from a Synod without the consent of such Synod.

Resolved, That a Committee of two Presbyters and synonical manop about not be removed by the General Council from a Synod without the consent of such Synod.

Resolved, That a Committees of two Presbyters and three laymen be appointed to lay the proceedings of this Council before the next General Council.

The Rev. Mr. Wilson then explained the resolutions. The report was accepted, and the resolutions taken up seriatim. The first two were adopted, but the third evoked considerable discussion, Dr. Fallows, the Bev. Mr. Wilson, and others, taking part in it.

Dr. Cooper wanted the third resolution to lie over till next meeting. He moved to amend that the resolution he over until the next meeting of the Synod. The Rev. Mr. Davis, Gen.
Backingsham, the Rev. Mr. Wilson, and others, opposed it.

The Rev. Mr. Wilson wanted to see the matter decided at this meeting.

Dr. Fallows thought now was the time for discussing the matter, and if they were going to postpone anything, he would be in favor of postponing the whole matter.

The vote to postpone was then taken, and the motion was lost.

AN AMENDMENT.

The vote to postpone was then taken, and the motion was lost.

AN AMENDMENT.

The Rev. Mr. Wilson then offered the third resolution, amended as follows:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Synod that a Synodical Bishop should not be removed from such synod by the General Council (except in accordance with the provisions of Canon II, Title 3, of the Canons of the Reformed Episopal Church, and of such amendments as may be made thereto) without the consent of such Synod.

Mr. Bennett spoke upon the subject, after which the resolution as amended was adopted.

The Bev. Dr. Cooper moved to reconsider the vote just taken, in order to amend "That the Blahop shall not be removed unless by consent of the Synod." The motion was lost.

THE FOURTH RESOLUTION was then taken up. The Chair stated that he would not like to take the responsibility of appointing the Committee,—that that should be left to the Synod. The resolution was changed so as to read that the delegates be elected, and was adopted. Meesurs. Wilson and Fallows, Gen. Buckingham. Col. Bennett, and A. G. King were elected the Committee, in accordance with the resolution.

Mr. Weddell moved that the next meeting of resolution.

Mr. Weddell moved that the next meeting of the Synod be held in Christ Church, Peoria. Carried.

Carried.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

The Rev. Dr. Fallows, from the Committee on Constitution and Canons, proposed an amendment to Art. I. of the Constitution, as follows: The Symod of Chicago shall embrace the Counties of Iroquois, Ford, Livingston, Woodford, Peoria, Knox, Warren, Henderson, and all that portion of the State of Illinois lying north of said counties. Also, the following amendment to Art. II.:

The Council of this 8ynod shall be composed of all ministers of the Church residing within the limits of the 8ynod, and of two delegates from each organized parish, and one additional delegate for every fifty communicants connected with such congregation or parish. One delegate from each organized congregation may be admitted on vote of the Synod.

tion may be admitted on vote of the Synod.

RECONSIDERED.

The Rev. Dr. Fallows moved that the vote by which Articles I. and II. of the Constitution were adopted be reconsidered. Carried. He then moved the adoption of the amendment to Article I.

Gen. Buckingham and the Rev. Wilson took part against the amendment.

Col. Bennett spoke in favor of the amendment, and held that there should be a territorial limit to the Synod, which would not prevent them helping the churches outsile of it. There was nothing to hinder them from doing good at other places. was nothing to hinder them from doing good at other places.

The Rev. Mr. Wilson held that the Synod already was well marked by territorial limits, and there should be no change at present.

Dr. Fallows said that the matter had been introduced to evoke discussion, and if another Synod were found necessary the territorial limits would have to be fixed.

Dr. Fallows' amendment to Art. I. was then rejected.

The amendment to Art. II. was next taken trejected.

The amendment to Art. II. was next taken to a many the Rev. Mr. Wilson, and Dr. Fallows, when it was unanimously adopted. The two articles as amended were then passed finally.

THE "APPEAL."

The Rev. Mr. Davis offered the following:

It was unanimously adopted. It was unanimously adopted.

The editors of the Appeal were requested to publish the Rev. Mr. Davis' sermon preached before the morning session, in a future number.

The Rev. Mr. Wilson believed in having adjourned meetings, instead of stated sessions, since there was no name fixed by the Constitusince there was no name fixed by the Constitution.

The Bsv. Mr. Davis moved that when the Council adjourn, it do so to meet in Christ Church, Peoria, the first Tuesday of October.
Some discussion followed, when the time of the next meeting was fixed for the second Tuesday in September at 10 a.m.

The Rev. Mr. Davis then moved a vote of thanks to the ladies of St. Paul's Church for their entertainment of the delegates, which was unanimously carried.

Dr. Fallows moved that the several congregations of the Synod of Chicago be requested to elect delegates to the Synod during the Easter season of each year.

Gen. Buckingham moved to amend "that they be elected for the meeting at Peoria, and at Easter time for every annual meeting to be held hereafter."

The Rev. Dr. Fallows' motion prevailed.

hereafter."
The Rev. Dr. Fallows' motion prevailed.
Bishop Cheney then congratulated the Synod upon its having acted so kindly and harmoniously upon every subject that came before it.
The Synod then adjourned, the Rev. Mr.
Wilson offering a prayer. The Doxology was sung, and the benediction was pronounced by Bishop Cheney.

as yet uncertain.

A susceptible young man from Alton came to decrease a starday and soid, among other fruits that he brought to town with him, a lot of strawberries at 50 cents a box. Then he went to call on two of his female cousins and took them to the matinee, after which he took them to the banquering house, and the banber over them was, "What'il ye have, girls?" He fed them with strawberries and comforted them with cream, and paid for the same at the rate of $1 a plate. Subsequently he discovered that they were his own strawberries. He departed for Alton by the night of press, declaring that heaceforth he would wage elemal and releatless war against middlemen and monopolists.

This is the marry time of anction sales, when forth he would wage elemal and relabilists war against middlemen and monopolists.

This is the merry time of auction sales, when women wander forth wish galoches on their feet and grim determination on their countenances, and seek houses where axless are to take place, returning home so tired that they can hardly talk, to declare that if they had the mees and rubbish some people call furniture they'd use it for kindling-wood before they'd display their poverty and poor taste to the public. A woman on Hoyne street was about to move, and convinced her husband that they couldn't do better than sell off their furniture at suction, and buy some more at auction, maintaining thus the apparently irreconcilistle theses that (1) you can always get things at auction for less than their worth, and (2) that you can always get more at anction for things than they are worth. Accordingly she disposed of her household effects Friday. Saturday she went to another auction and bought back for $10.75 the girl's bed-room set that on the day preceding she had sold for $10.60, less charges and commission. When her husband reminded her of it, she burst into a flood of tears, asked him if this was all the thanks she got for trying to save his money, and declared that it was all his fault for having the sale Friday, which she always had tried to make him believe was an unlucky day.

SELLING OFF OLD CLOTHES.

A prudent young man up on Seeley avenue, who sells all his old clothes when the spring time comes, has hit upon an ingenious plan for noreasing his revenue from this source. He carefully makes a hole in the lining of one of the pockets of the veetment whereof he is about to dispose, and puts therein a small wad of tiesne paper wrapped about with a greasy Confederate note. When the dealer comes around to purchase, he naturally explores the pocket, and, feeling what he takes to be a compact wad of greenbacks, ays, "How mooch 20 vest?" "The vest?" ophies the prudent young man; "O, that is an inducky vest. I haven't worn it since last bristmas. I thought I had a roll of greensacks amounting to $56 in the pocket, and when came to feel for it it was gone. And yet," he dids, musingly, "I could have sworn no one tax near that vest. But it's a good vest; cost as $11.50." "And how mooch you takes for im, my dear?" says the merchant, in a voice rembling with emotion. "O, well, times are and and must get all I can. $8.75." replies the prudent young man. "Eight thaler seventy-five cents!" screams the dealer; "you reget I was der Belknap, hem? I gaves you unfyt oents." "Frity Erebns!" replies the prudent young man; "pull down our vest and gimme back mine. It was it another season; in his Centennial year we ought 'to turn to the economy of our forefather; I'm ping to return to the coording of our forefather; I'm ping to return to the coording of our forefather; I'm ping to return to the coording of our forefather; I'm ping to return to the coording of our forefather; I'm ping to return to the coording of our forefather; I'm ping to return to the coording of our forefather; I'm ping to return to the coording of our forefather; I'm ping to return to the coording of our forefather; I'm ping to return to the coording of our forefather; I'm ping to return to the coording of our forefather; I'm ping to return to the coording of our forefather; I'm pin this Centennial year we ought to return to the economy of our forefathers; I'm going to return to the economy of our forefathers; I'm going to return to the economy of my forefather; gimme it." "Ach, no." suswers the dealer, who dreads lest the precious garment should be refi from him; "I geefs you seek thaler." "Well, essing it's yon," says the prudent young man, "you can have it," and so the dicker is consummated, and the dealer hastens away with his prise. He has done such an extensive and profitable businese that he thinks seriously, if there only are enough sold-slothes merchants in lown, of buying some ready-made clothing himself and selling it as second-hand.

An adjourned meeting of the Chicago Academy of Sciences was held last night at the Academy, No. 263 Wabash avenue, E. W. Biatchford in the chair. Numerous donations to the museum and library were reported.

The first scientific paper was read by Dr. Edmind Audrews on the character of the drift formation in the neighborhood of Lake Michigan. Its object was to determine whether the formation was due to the action of fresh water glaciers or to sea icebergs. The speaker had procured the analysis of water obtained from different portions of the drift, and had found that it (the water) contained 18 grains of sait to the gailon, giving 50,000 barrels of sait to very square mile of surface in the neighborhood of Chicago. This went to prove that the formation of the drift was due to the action of sait to the gailon, just above, contained only a third of a grain of salt to the gallon.

THE TOWN BOAID HAD NO POWER to declare as they did it offices of Supervisor, Assessor, Collector, and Town Clerk vacant, and had no power, therefore, to proceed and fill them by appointment. But even if the Board had had such power at the meeting of April 16, they lost is by admitting that the election was walld in recognitions and allowing the resignation of Patrick K. Hyap, the Supervisor, and in allowing Gleecon to Join with theur in the appointment of lk. T. Lincoln in Hyan's place. The Town Board also issued a certificate of the election of Linceln and Gray, which has been filed with the County Clerk's office for some purpose to him unknown.

Mr. Gray gives out that he is the legal Assessor, and is about to receive the books from the County Clerk, and therefore asks for an injunction to restrain the County Clerk from issuing the Assessor, books to Mr. Gray, and to prevent the Town Board for any salary.

Mears o'Brien, Barge & Dixon and Hainee & Tripp appear as solicitors for the complainant. An application will be made this morning to Judge Farweil for a temporary injunction.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

At the meeting of the Board vesterday afternoon, Sanitary Superintendent Miller reported that 136 people died last week, 10 more than in the previous week, though 12 less than during the corresponding week of 1875. Of the 136, only 36 were married. There were 61 males. Fifty of the deceased were under 2 years of age, and 6 were over 70 years. The aliments were: Accidents, 5; apoplexy, 2; brain, 3; bronchitis, 3; convulsions, 15; cranosis, 3; debility, 3; diphtheria, 5; dropey, 3; enteritis, 3; puerperal fever, 4; searlet, 8; typhoid, 2; heart disease, 7; inanition, 4; meningitis, 7; phthisis pulmonalis, 16; pneumonis, 9; small-pox, 1; syphilis, 1; scorfula, 1; whooping cough, 5. The children resident at the Pacino deter-mined upon a fair in aid of the Foundlings' Home. Probably not one of them has the re-motest idea of the functions of the institution, or the sorrow and misery of which it is the out-growth, but they had heard of a house full of roungsters to whom toys are strangers and lux-iries unknown, and so they decided to hold a

AT THE SUB-TREASURY.

THE PUBLIC GREED FOR SILVER continues unabated. The more that coin is given out the greater is the demand. Yesterday morning specie payments were again resumed at the Sub-Treasury, in accordance with the previous announcement, and long before the hour for opening the Government offices a crowd gathered about the entrance in Arcade court. They were mostly messenger-boys, porters, and clerks, and were provided with the usual assort-

George Ward, alias Wood, and Thomas Carroil, alias Clark, were before Justice Foote yesterday. Ward, for resisting an officer, was sent to the Bridewell for 104 days, and Carroli got fifty-four days in the same institution. Both had been engaged in a theft, which was the cause of their arrest.

toms of society and the caprice of her owner will permit her to snatch a few winks of Me balmy.

Table No. 4 was loaded with flowers, rare awest flowers, that filled the parlor with perfume, and made the room contrast strangely with those apartments for whose occupants the fair was hold,—not very pleasant prooms at best, and filled with little beds, and they in turn too often with little sufferers, to whom a flower is like an angel, unseen this side of the grave.

On tables Nos. 5 and 6 were the toilet-sets and accountements of the various doils. Everything in miniature, everything complete. Bureaus, dressing-cases, bedsteads, all that makes the fashionable doll sufficiently comfortable and languid for her station in society.

And around them all were the groups of children, hurrying from one fascination to another, and delighted with all. They seemed to thoroughly understand that the income from all this array was to be devoted to some nondescripts, popularly known as "poor children" and generally supposed to have the full complement of legis, arms, and digestive apparently failed, and also their interest.

Of course the hand of restraint must be felt, and Mrs. Coddington Billings, Mrs. T. O. Barter, Mrs. E. W. Peet, Mrs. C. P. Kellogg, Mrs. Samuel Parter, Miss Nana Quion. Miss Mary Gaskill, and Miss Hattie Gaskill kindly voluntered their services to keep the children quiet, and bend the twig of the proceedings in the way it should go. And the result was a pronounced success, and, when the doors were closed, some 8300 had been realized for the little urchins, who came into the world to be innocent carpet-baggers, and whose existence depends upon some such charity as that developed yesterday. Ernest Keller, a fugitive from the justice dis-pensed by the national authorities at Dubuque, was yesterday arrested by Detective Dargol at McCorniek's reaser factory, where he has been at work since his arrival in this city. In the afternoon Deputy Marshal shodduck, of Du-buque, sock him in charge, and returned home on the evening train.

Four more of the roughs who amuse themselves by insulting and starting passers by on Chicago avenus were last evening taken in by the police, under orders from Capt. Qund. Their names are Riohard Faith, Thomas Daly, Richard Warren, and Henry Hassis. Though young in years, they are old and daring in crime. Warren being as perfect a deaperado as there is in the city.

Bupt. Hickey yesterday received notice of the arrest of George Dapone in Baltimore. George is wanted in this city for a windling several parties during October last year. On complaint of E. Wolfe, of No. 230 State street, and E. Deste, a dyer on Adams street, he was arrested and brought before Pollak, but skipped during the pending trial. He will be brought back to this city as soon as possible.

city as soon as possible.

Monday evening ex-Ald. Tracey, while returning home, was assaulted and robbed by four men near the corner of Haisted and Stern streets. A gold watch, presented to him several years ago, gold spectacles, and a plethoric purse were among the valuables captured. Shortly after the occurrence Sergt. Hood happened by, and with the aid of Mr. Tracey succeeded in capturing two roughs, who gave the names of Michael McLaughlin and Denis O'Donnell. Their cases were continued in $1,000 bail by Justice Summerfield, to give the police a chance to capture their confederates.

merheid, to give he poince a chance to their confederates.

The grocery store of J. A. Lundstrom, No. 1265 Wentworth avenue, was robbed of a cheek of tea by burglars on the night of the 2d inst., and, on the 12th inst. following, the residence of C. C. Webster, No. 20 Sixteenth street, was burglarized of $160 worth of silverware. Circumstances indicated that both jobs were done by the same person. Monday afternoon Officer Croak visited the house of Mattie Landin, No. 1310 Butterfield street, and recovered all the stolen goods. William Hamilton and George Williams, two negroes, who are the suspected burglars, were also taken in, together with three of Mrs. Landin's children. Justice Summerfield yesterday held Hamilton in $500 bail to the Criminal Court for the burglary of the grocery, and the cases of the two men were continued for want of complete evidence, in $1,000 bail, for the burglary of Mr. Webster's house. The Landins were held in $300 bail each for receiving stolen property.

Balloting for a permanent President was resumed, and after fourteen ballots Mr. Benaley was elected by the following vote: Benaley, 4; Taylor, 2. Mr. Benaley then accepted the position in a brief and quiet speech, and the Board was ready for business.

An ordinance was then offered by Mr. Schlund to the effect that, as the funds in the Treasury were low and there would be few taxes collected before September, the following-named offices be abolished: Village Attorney, Village Engineer, Superintendent of Public Works, and Captain of Police; also that the three first-named offices turn over all their books, papers, etc., to the Village Clerk, and that the Captain of Police turn over his papers, etc., to the Sergeant of Police. The ordinance was then adopted by the following vote: Yasa, Bogue, Schlund, Taylor, and Bensley; nays, Farrell and Powell.

A resolution was then introduced by Mr. Bogue to the effect that a special committee of three be appointed to examine into the question of office duties required of and salaries paid to each, the number of policemen employed, where stationed, and salaries paid; and that the special committee to report to the on a charge of drunkenness preferred by one Clark keeper of a Canal street dive. Six witnesses (employes) were produced by Clark to seen that the officer was drunk and the case was taken under advisement by the Police Board.

About the only excitement current at city headquarters vesterday was speculations on the decision regarding city serip. The employes are all confident that a favorable decision will quickly repleus their purses, while an unfavorable turn, they think, would raip them irretrievably. Colvin's rival is pertinacity—Conobshell Reynolds—called in vain upon the Mayor yesterday. He was in search of information as to how many yester he (Raynolds) recavel for the office of the distriction of meeting, which was fixed at 3.90 o'dlook Tuesday afterwoons, instead of Saturday, as frectores.

The Board then adjourned to meet Tuesday The Board then adjourned to meet Tuesday afternoon.

The choice of President was one requiring a long contest, owing to the difficulty of making a selection between two such excellent men as Mr. Bensley and Taylor. The latter has large interests in the village, and his vote upon the ordinance reducing the number of salaried officers showed a praiseworthy desire to reduce expenses. Mr. Bensley is too well known as President of the Chicago Board of Trade to need further mention.

ident of the Chicago Board of Trade to need further mention.

The first action of the new Board is in the direction of economy and reform. The aggregate of salaries paid the four officers whose places have been abolished was $10,100. While there will be an undoubted necessity for some one to attend to the legal business of the village, the engineering operations and the public works, it is not so certain that the officers need be continually on salary, and there is strong probability that the Board will you to employ legal and engineering talent for specific pieces of work as may be necessary. The special Committee appointed to look into the question of the number of officers required will endeavor to report at the next meeting, when the matter will be settled.

"Why?"

"I cannot furnish any one with a copy of my report to the Comptroller of the Currency, without his permission. I am not allowed to do so."

"I have not yet made any statement, and am not prepared to make any now."

"But if it was done for the interest of the bank, why not let the public and the depositors know it? It will increase their confidence in the ultimate ability of the bank to pay."

"Partially for the benefit of the bank."

"Can you give me an idea as to how much?"

"Well, no, I cannot. It is partly a private transaction and partly a bank one, and the two are so interwoven that I cannot now explain."

At this instant the Assistant Cashier appeared on the scene and stated: "If you want an item of news you may state that there is a movement of news you may state that there is a movemen

CHICAGO, April, 24, 1876.—The Hon. John Joy Knox, Comptrolier of the Currency: The undersumed, who are depositors in the City National Bank of Chicago, Ill., for the amounts set opposite their names, respectfully pray that said bank may be allowed to go into voluntary liquidation, and settle up its business, being astissed that the bank can in that manner adjust its affairs and pay its liabilities more quickly and satisfactorily than in any other way.

Yesterday afternoon the petition had received the agnatures of depositors whose deposits aggregate aimoss $250,000.

Finding that no more information could be obtained, the reporter withdrew.

The suspension of the bank caused the Metropolitan Printing Company, of which D. P. Burr was Superintendent, to do likewise. It closed up Mouday evening, and the men employed therein were discharged. It has been a losing concern for some time.

it to King Kalakaua, proceeded to the Cuty National Bank, where he remained all day examining the books and records of the institution.
In this arduous task he was aided by President

Late in the afternoon a Tainuns reporter

**Special Disputch to The Chicago Tribuns.**

Washington, D. C., April 24.—The failure of the City National Bank, of Chicago, was a great surprise to the Comptroller of the Currency. The latest reports from the bank have showed it to be in a favorable condition, and there was nothing either in the last report of the Examiner or in the last requiar report from the bank which could lead the authorities here to believe that the bank was not in a sound, and healthy condition. Bank-Examiner Watson, in his statement of Feb. 8, which is the last requiar statement of the Examiner, reports the capital stock at $250,000; surplus, $130,000; undivided profits, $18,792; individual deposits, $456,000; due to National banks and State banks, $549,000.

From this statement it appears that the liabilities of the bank were something more than $1,000,000. The amount of bonds deposited as security for circulation had been reduced to $55,000. The bank had $250,000 with other banks and bankers, including their reserve. They had $220,000 in legal tender and National bank notes; also $67,000 in exchanges for the Clearing-House. Their bills receivable were $718,000, of which amount $61,000 were overdue; $20,000 were loaned on real estate, and $76,000 loaned to Directors of the bank. The last report, made March 10, differs only slightly from the regular report of the Examiner above cited. The Examiner on Feb. 8 reports the bank as doing a good and profitable business under careful and conservative management. The legal reserve was fully up to the standard. The value of the bank building was returned at $164,000, which the Examiner did not think was overestimated.

As far as can be judged from the statement of the Bank Examiner, the Comptroller of the Currency thinks that the bank outly have been alarmed, even if the drafts from country bankers had been very great. The only explanation which can here be given as to the prob

AMUSEMENTS.

The first regiment concerts.

The fortheoming concerts at the Exposition Building, to be given by Gilmore's Band under the auspices of the First Regiment, are already beginning to create great interest among our musical people. The general public will be always to the promental features of the promenade concerts, and the musical people not only by Mr. Gilmore's admirable band, but also by the superb sole talent he will bring,—the two prima donuss, Mine. Pappenheims and Miss Thursby, and the two famous corned players, Levy and Arbuckle. It will be Mine. Pappenheim's debut in Chicago, but her fame has preceded her from her winter's season of operations was indorsed as one of the finest singers in the operatic annals of this country. With Miss Thursby and the cornetists. Levy and Arbuckle, the public are already familiar. As the price of admission to these three remarkable concerts has been fixed at the reasonable rate of 50 cents, there can be little doubt that they will be attended by immense crowds, and that the First Regiment will have a gala time of it next week.

THE VON BULOW CONCERTS.

The noted pianist, Dr. Von Bulow, will make his farewell to Chicago in three concerts next week, on Wednesday and Friday evenings and Saturday afternoon, at McCormick's Hall. The programme for the opening nights will be composed of choice selections from Schumann, Mendelssohn, Schubert, and Liszt. On Friday night the selections will be exclusively from Besthoven, including the sonatas op. 31 No. 2, op. 26, and op. 101; the fantasie op. 77, and rondo capriccioso, op. 129, and the fugue and andante finale, op. 35. The selections for the matines will be from Chopan, including his third sonata, op. 58, the concert allegro, op. 46, and several of his nocturnes, waltzes, and mazurkas. The sales of seats commences on Friday next at Root & Son's music store, 156 State street. THE VON BULOW CONCERTS.
